Independent auditor's review report on quarterly information

To the Shareholders, Board of Directors and Officers of Valid Soluções S.A.
Rio de Janeiro - RJ

Introduction

We have reviewed the accompanying individual and consolidated interim financial information contained in the Quarterly Information Form (ITR) of Valid Soluções S.A. (the "Company") for the quarter ended September 30, 2026, which comprises the statement of financial position as of September 30, 2026 and the related statements of profit or loss and of comprehensive income for the three and nine-month periods then ended and of changes in equity and of cash flows for the nine-month period then ended, including the explanatory notes.

The executive board is responsible for the preparation of the individual and consolidated interim financial information in accordance with Accounting Pronouncement CPC 21 (R1) – Interim Financial Reporting and IAS 34 – Interim Financial Reporting, issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), currently referred to by the IFRS Foundation as IFRS Accounting Standards, as well as for the fair presentation of this information in conformity with the rules issued by the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM) applicable to the preparation of the Quarterly Information Form (ITR). Our responsibility is to draw a conclusion on this interim financial information based on our review.

Scope of the review

We conducted our review in accordance with Brazilian and international standards on review engagements (NBC TR 2410 – Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity and ISRE 2410 – Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity, respectively). A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of people responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards and, consequently, does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion on the individual and consolidated interim financial information

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying individual and consolidated interim financial information included in the quarterly information referred to above is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with CPC 21 and IAS 34 applicable to the preparation of the Quarterly Information Form (ITR), and presented consistently with the rules issued by the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM).

Statements of value added

The aforementioned quarterly information includes the individual and consolidated statements of value added (SVA) for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2026, prepared under the responsibility of the Company's executive board and presented as supplementary information under IAS 34. These statements have been subject to review procedures performed together with the review of the quarterly information for the purpose of concluding whether they are reconciled to the interim financial information and the accounting records, as applicable, and if their format and content are in accordance with the criteria set forth by Accounting Pronouncement CPC 09 – Statement of Value Added. Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that they were not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the criteria set forth by this standard and consistently with the overall individual and consolidated interim financial information.

Valid Soluções S.A. ("Valid", "Parent Company" or "Company"), headquartered at Rua Laura Maiello Kook, n° 511, Ipanema das Pedras, Sorocaba, São Paulo State, has been operating in Brazil since 1957 and is primarily engaged in the production and provision of services for the security market in identification, management, and protection of data, whether physical or digital. Its main customers include state governments and government agencies, financial institutions, telecommunications companies, retailers, agricultural cooperatives, and self-employed professionals.

The Company's solution portfolio comprises higher value-added solutions, including digital platforms for identification and biometric authentication, digital certification, fraud prevention systems, administrative modernization systems, trackable seals, document logistics, and supply management for graphic design products. The Company's business also includes production of bank cards and statements, smart cards, contactless cards, internet banking applications, SIM cards, e-SIMs, subscription management systems for mobile operators, intelligent storage systems, driver's licenses and identification documents, processing and issue of documents with security printing and fraud prevention, traceability services using RFID technology, and utility service bills.

Valid and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") have a global presence, with entities domiciled in Brazil, the United States, Spain, Denmark, Republic of Mauritius, Singapore, South Africa, Nigeria, United Arab Emirates, Indonesia, Argentina, Mexico, Uruguay, Colombia, China, Germany and India, which enables the Company to scale digital solutions, seize opportunities in both emerging and developed markets, and diversify its revenue sources, as detailed in Note 2.3.

The Company has its shares traded on B3 under ticker symbol "VLID3" and has been listed since April 12, 2006 in the governance listing segment called Novo Mercado (New Market).

2. Basis of preparation

2.1. Statement of compliance

The individual and consolidated financial statements have been prepared and are presented in accordance with the accounting practices adopted in Brazil, which comprise the rules set forth by the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM) and the accounting pronouncements issued by the Brazilian Accounting Pronouncements Committee (CPC), which are in line with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

In addition, the Company considered the guidance contained in OCPC 07, issued by CPC in November 2014, when preparing its financial statements. Accordingly, significant information inherent in the financial statements, and only such information, is being disclosed and corresponds to that used by management to manage the Company's activities.

The individual and consolidated interim financial information was approved and authorized for disclosure by the Company's Board of Directors on November 11, 2026.

2.2. Basis of measurement

The individual and consolidated interim financial information has been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for financial instruments measured at fair value through profit or loss and the financial statements of Valid Soluciones y Servicios de Seguridad en Medios de Pago e Identificación S.A. ("Valid Argentina"), which were prepared under the requirements of IAS 29 - Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies.

The interim financial information has been prepared in accordance with the same accounting policies, principles, methods and uniform criteria adopted for the preparation of the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025 and, consequently, this quarterly information should be read in conjunction with the annual financial statements.

2.3. Basis of consolidation

The consolidated interim financial information includes the financial information of the Company and of its subsidiaries as at September 30, 2026.

Control is achieved when the Company is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. The percentage of equity interest held at the reporting dates is as follows:

2.4. Functional and presentation currencies

The individual and consolidated interim financial information is presented in Brazilian reais (R$), the Company's functional currency, and amounts have been rounded to the nearest thousand, unless otherwise stated. The Company and its subsidiaries determine their own functional currency, and for those entities whose functional currencies are other than the Brazilian real, the financial information is translated into the Brazilian real: assets and liabilities are translated at the closing exchange rate effective at the reporting date, and profit or loss at the average rate for the period, in accordance with CPC 02 (R2) - The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates and Translation of Financial Statements, equivalent to IAS 21 - The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates.

Functional currencies of the Company and its subsidiaries are as follows:

Companies	Functional currency
Valid	Brazilian real
VBlu	Brazilian real
VSoft	Brazilian real
Thinkbox	Brazilian real
Biopass	US dollar
Via Soft	Brazilian real
Mitra	Brazilian real
Valid Hub	Brazilian real
Diazero	Brazilian real

Valid Spain	Euro
Valid USA	US dollar
HST Systems	US dollar
Valid A/S (1)	US dollar
Valid Denmark	US dollar
Valid Beijing	US dollar
Valid Nigéria	US dollar
Valid Alemanha	Euro

(1) The functional currency of each Valid A/S subsidiary is determined based on its individual transactions. However, the functional currency US dollar is the most significant for Valid A/S and its subsidiaries.

Assets and liabilities of foreign subsidiaries are translated into Brazilian reais at the closing exchange rate prevailing at the respective reporting date, and their statements of profit or loss are translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the transaction dates, as well as the statements of cash flows. The exchange differences arising on such translation are recognized in other comprehensive income. On disposal of a foreign operation, cumulative translation differences relating to this foreign operation, recognized in other comprehensive income, are reclassified to profit or loss.

2.5. Use of estimates and judgments

The critical accounting estimates and judgments adopted by the Company in this interim financial information are consistent with those adopted in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025; therefore, it should be read in conjunction with the financial statements.

3. Cash and cash equivalents, marketable securities and restricted financial investments

	Individual		Consolidated
	09/30/2026	12/31/2025	09/30/2026	12/31/2025

	415,131	471,041	690,186	862,868

Cash equivalents refer to highly liquid marketable securities held in first-tier financial institutions, which can be redeemed at any time and are readily convertible into a known amount of cash, with insignificant risk of changes in value, and comprise, mainly, investments in floating-income Bank Deposit Certificates (CDB) and repurchase agreements backed by debentures, with guaranteed buyback and yield based on Interbank Deposit Certificate (CDI) rates.

Short-term marketable securities refer to financial investments held in pooled investment funds, while long-term marketable securities are investments in Fundo de Investimento em Participações Criatec III, which aims to capitalize innovative micro and small enterprises.

Restricted marketable securities are guarantees for certain loan agreements and debentures, which include primarily investments in an index investment fund (CDI FICFI), and floating-income CDBs with yield based on the CDI rate. Redemptions may be made upon settlement of loans, and the segregation between short and long term was based on assessment of the unconditional right to redeem the invested amounts.

4. Trade accounts receivable

The Company analyzes the balances of past due receivables individually and uses, as an assumption, the history of receivables from and amounts rescheduled with such customers to hedge against possible risks. In addition, the allowance for expected credit losses is calculated considering qualitative aspects to measure the expected loss for the next 12 months and/or over the useful life of the asset depending on the risk at the reporting date. These aspects take into consideration the history of losses and an additional individual assessment of the credit risk of the Company's customers, considering the risk ratings for each country and/or region in which the Group companies operate. Management uses a publicly available rating disclosed by credit rating agencies to measure the exposure of its customers in order to obtain the most adequate risk assessment and, consequently, record the allowance, irrespective of whether balances are past due. Management of the Company and its subsidiaries consider that the allowance amounts are sufficient to cover any losses on realization of receivables.

(1) Effects of the hyperinflation in Argentina.

(2) On March 17, 2025, the Company acquired 49% of noncontrolling interests in subsidiary Mitra and now holds a 100% equity interest (see Note 8).

(3) The amount refers mainly to the withholding of taxes on dividends received from Spain and Colombia.

(4) Of this total amount, R$2,982 refers to the reduction of capital of subsidiary Valid Sucursal due to the sale of Valid Colombia's payment operation, as disclosed in Note 20, and R$3,450 refers to the capital increase in subsidiary VBlu. Consequently, the net amount presented in the statement of cash flows regarding changes in the subsidiaries' capital is (R$468).

8.1. Business combinations

a) VSoft Tecnologia Participações S.A. (“VSoft”) e Via Soft Soluções Tecnológicas S.A. (“Via Soft”)

January 15, 2025, the Company acquired 70% of VSoft and Via Soft, now holding a total of 80% equity interest in these companies. Additionally, holders of 20% noncontrolling interests have a put option against the Company, based on metrics similar to those for disposal by controlling interest holders. Based on the documents, this instrument was considered a financial liability, thus recognized as part of the purchase price, effectively achieving virtually a 100% equity interest in the companies. VSoft and Via Soft are headquartered in the state of Paraíba and operate in the digital segment, rendering technological services with solutions for (i) process certification and identification of people in the transit market; (ii) biometric systems; and (iii) digital identity systems.

This acquisition gives Valid the possibility of complementing its geographic presence in the country and also ensures the expansion of the product and technology portfolio, both for the public sector market, through initiatives together with the State Traffic Departments, and the private sector market, with solutions that allow the certification of processes for driving schools. The consideration comprises the following:

Previously existing equity interest	9,494
Acquisition of a 70% equity interest (a)	66,461
Additional acquisition of a 20% noncontrolling interest (b)	18,989
	94,944

(a) Calculated based on multiples of the projected P&L for 2025 and 2026 of the acquirees, payable upon achieving the projections by April 10, 2027.

(b) Considering the put option of noncontrolling interest holders against the Company, based on conditions similar to those for purchase by controlling interest holders, the Company classified this instrument as a financial liability, as part of the purchase price, effectively reaching virtually a 100% equity interest in VSoft and Via Soft. This liability was calculated at fair value based on multiples of the projected P&L for 2025 and 2026 of the acquirees, payable in 2027 upon exercise of the put options by the noncontrolling interest holders.

At the date of acquisition, according to the valuation report, the fair values of identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed are as follows:

	Fair value of assets and liabilities at acquisition date
Cash and cash equivalents	111
Marketable securities	4,480
Accounts receivable	7,024
Related parties	4,533
Property, plant and equipment	2,692
Intangible assets	48,819
Other assets	6,714
Trade accounts payable	(3,649)
Loans	(1,026)
Tax obligations	(2,775)
Labor obligations	(3,137)
Deferred income and social contribution taxes	(12,349)
Related parties	(5,913)
Other liabilities	(2,286)
Net assets of acquirees	43,238
Total consideration	94,944
Total goodwill from acquisition	51,706

The allocations are summarized below:

Revaluation surplus of customer relationship [(1)]	32,268
Revaluation surplus - technology [(2)]	4,052
Total	36,320

(1) The fair value of customer relationship was measured using the multi-period excess earnings method (MEEM). The Customer Portfolios (both of Via Soft and VSoft) have an estimated remaining useful life of 8.8 years, with present values calculated based on a discount rate of 19.67%.

(2) The fair value estimate was calculated based on the replacement cost method. This intangible asset has a finite useful life of 5 years, which is consistent with the typical useful life of software.

The acquirees' contribution to the Group is as follows:

Acquirees' net revenue from January 1 to December 31, 2025	83,853
Acquirees' profit from January 1 to December 31, 2025	11,410

The Company did not incur significant costs to complete the acquisition and the amounts were recognized in profit or loss for the year as incurred.

b) Mitra - Acesso em Rede e Tecnologia da Informação Municipal Ltda. ("Mitra")

Effects on capital transactions

On March 17, 2025, the Company acquired all of Mitra's shares held by noncontrolling interests for R$33,566, of which R$21,000 was paid in March and April 2025, R$3,000 will be paid by April 1, 2028, and the remaining balance of R$9,173 is contingent on the achievement of certain metrics specified in the contract. Considering that Mitra was already a subsidiary, the entire excess payment of R$11,124 was recorded directly in equity as capital transaction, of which R$1,793 relates to deferred taxes.

c) Diazero Online Security Consulting Ltd. ("Diazero")

On July 2, 2026, the Company, through Valid Link, acquired 100% of the share capital of Diazero, a company specializing in cybersecurity solutions, with the objective of expanding its presence in the digital security market and complementing its portfolio of information security-related products and services.

The maximum contractual consideration for the acquisition amounts to R$ 15,000, comprising fixed consideration of R$ 7,000 (R$ 6,000 paid at closing and R$ 1,000 retained as security for contingencies) and contingent consideration of up to R$ 8,000, measured at a fair value of R$ 5,450 based on the contractual targets and the present value adjustment, resulting in total consideration at a fair value of R$ 12,450.

At the acquisition date, based on the preliminary valuation report, the fair values of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed are as follows:

	Fair value of assets and liabilities at acquisition date
Accounts receivable and marketable securities	999
Property, plant and equipment	16
Intangible assets	2,187
Trade accounts payable	(416)
Deferred income and social contribution taxes	(610)
Labor and tax obligations	(497)
Net assets of acquirees	1,679
Total consideration	12,450
Total goodwill from acquisition	10,771

The allocations are summarized below:

Revaluation surplus of customer portfolio (1)	1,760
Revaluation surplus technology (2)	34
Total	1,794

(1) Refers to the fair value assigned to the acquiree's customer portfolio, considering the expected future economic benefits.
(2) Refers to the fair value assigned to the technologies identified in the business combination, separately from goodwill.

The acquirees' contribution to the Group is as follows:

Acquirees' net revenue from acquisition date to September 30, 2026	1,812
Acquirees' profit from acquisition date to September 30, 2026	24

The Company did not incur significant costs to complete the acquisition and the amounts were recognized in profit or loss for the year as incurred.

d) HST Card Technology – Desenvolvimento de Sistemas Ltda. ("HST Card")

On August 3, 2026, as part of the acquisition of the HST Card Technology group, the Company acquired control of HST Card, a company specializing in technology solutions for the payment services market, with the objective of expanding its portfolio of digital products and services.

The contractual consideration allocated to HST Card amounts to R$23,608 at fair value.

At the acquisition date, based on the preliminary valuation report, the fair values of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed are as follows:

	Fair value of assets and liabilities at acquisition date
Cash and cash equivalents	538
Marketable securities	2,034

Net assets of acquirees	13,405
Total consideration	23,608
Total goodwill from acquisition	10,203

The allocations are summarized below:

Revaluation surplus technology (1)	10,755
Revaluation surplus brands (2)	3,134
Total	13,889

(1) Refers to the fair value assigned to the technologies identified in the business combination, separately from goodwill.
(2) Refers to the fair value assigned to the acquiree's brands, considering the expected future economic benefits.

The acquirees' contribution to the Group is as follows:

Acquirees' net revenue from acquisition date to September 30, 2026	2,664
Acquirees' profit from acquisition date to September 30, 2026	(4,708)

The Company did not incur significant costs to complete the acquisition and the amounts were recognized in profit or loss for the year as incurred.

e) HST Systems and Technology, Inc. ("HST Systems")

On August 3, 2026, as part of the acquisition of the HST Card Technology group, Valid USA, Inc., an indirect subsidiary of the Company, acquired 100% of the share capital of HST Systems, a company specializing in technology solutions for the payment services market, thereby expanding the Group's international presence and complementing its portfolio of digital solutions.

The contractual consideration allocated to HST Systems amounts to R$48,459 at fair value. Of this amount, R$35,000 was paid at closing, and R$13,459 relates to future installments recognized at present value.

At the acquisition date, based on the preliminary valuation report, the fair values of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed are as follows:

	Fair value of assets and liabilities at acquisition date
Cash and cash equivalents	395
Marketable securities	2,266
Accounts receivable	5,793

(1) Payment related to a proceeding before the Administrative Council for Economic Defense (CADE).

(2) Refers to the conversion of judicial deposits.

The main proceedings by nature are detailed below:

Labor claims

These refer to various labor claims, the most significant of which individually relate to overtime, acknowledgment of employment relationship, health/hazardous duty pay, and equal pay for equal work, among other labor rights.

Tax proceedings

The main proceedings are summarized below:

- Debt annulment action representing a contingency of R$2,562 at September 30, 2026 (R$2,479 at December 31, 2025), deriving from deduction of marketable securities frozen by the Collor Plan from the taxable profit, offset with credit in favor of the Company. This action is pending a final decision.
- Tax Enforcement demanding tax credits subject matter of Administrative Proceeding No. 10980.720439/2015-12 (DEBCADs 51.068.483-1 / 51.068.484-0 / 51.056.492-5), which includes the disallowance of undue offsets of social security contributions alleged by the Tax Authorities for the period from December 2009 to December 2010 (compensation right recognized in Ordinary Suit No. 98.0010028-8), one-time fine of 150% referring to the period from January 2010 to January 2011, and fine for noncompliance with accessory obligations, respectively. The guarantee had previously been offered in the records of the Action for Anticipatory Relief No. 5016145-08.2022.4.02.5101. Following the conclusion of all judicial proceedings, the amount related to the judgment was paid on August 7, 2026. Accordingly, the updated balance as of September 30, 2026, was nil (R$6,294 at December 31, 2025).
- Aduana Inlays filed a lawsuit against Valid Argentina claiming taxes and fines on the import of inlays due to a classification difference under the Customs Code. The proceeding is currently in the discovery phase. As of September 30, 2026, the restated amount is R$2,924 (R$3,138 at December 31, 2025).

Civil claims

Collection action filed by United Arenas Ltda. against Valid, aiming at collecting rents referring to the movable property subject matter of the "Lease Agreement for the MM3000 Hologram Application Machine" entered into by the parties. A decision was rendered, partially granting the requests made by the plaintiff, which filed an appeal against a specific portion of the decision. At the same time, the plaintiff required the enforcement of the judgment to execute the entirety of the amount claimed in the main action. The Company appealed against the judgment by the Brazilian High Court of Justice (STJ) and, in the case records of the main action, filed an appeal to the STJ against the decision that upheld that appeal. This appeal was judged in August 2025. A decision partially favoring the Company has been rendered and, due to some omissions, the Company filed a motion for clarification that is pending judgment. Provisional enforcement of the judgment was initiated, including attorney's fees, case no. 0047004-58.2022.8.26.0100. An insurance policy was attached to secure the decision, and an objection was filed, which was upheld. The Company filed a Motion for Clarification, which is pending analysis. The motions for clarification were upheld and the case records were provisionally archived. The Company awaits an analysis of the appeal to the decision that denied the appeal to the High Court of Justice. The parties entered into a court-approved settlement in the amount of R$6,319, thereby ending the dispute. A final and unappealable decision was handed down. Accordingly, the updated balance as of September 30, 2026, was nil (R$8,490 at December 31, 2025).

Proceedings whose likelihood of loss has been assessed as possible

No provision was recognized for legal and administrative proceedings whose likelihood of loss is assessed as possible by management, based on the opinion of external legal advisors. These proceedings are as follows:

The main proceedings by nature are detailed below:

Labor claims

The Company is a party to various labor claims, mostly seeking overtime, acknowledgment of employment relationship, health/hazardous duty pay, equal pay for equal work, and FGTS and INSS-related benefits, among other labor rights.

Tax proceedings

The main proceedings are summarized below:

- Federal Value-Added Tax (IPI): the Company was served notices of tax deficiency, from 2010 to 2013, by federal tax authorities under the allegation that the tax classification of the Company's customized prints should be different from the one adopted. Pursuant to the tax code informed by the Brazilian IRS, the materials produced by the Company should be subject to IPI taxation and, therefore, the Company should be considered an IPI taxpayer to the Federal Government. Under the same notice of deficiency, the tax authorities used IPI credits that were accumulated due to acquisition of inputs used in the production of said prints, to reduce the calculated debts subject matter of the tax deficiency notices. As a result of amortization of IPI credits with debts, the taxation authorities disallowed the offset returns in which those credits were used. Given a change in financial guidance on the issue, the Company no longer offsets accumulated tax credits against other federal taxes, but requires refund in cash of the corresponding amounts. In August 2022, the Company was notified of the unfavorable decision for the administrative proceedings. The Company appealed and the proceeding is pending a review by the Administrative Board of Tax Appeals (CARF). CARF did not accept the appeal and, in November 2023, the Company appealed the decision. Administrative proceedings No. 16682.900030/2011-97 and No. 16682.900029/2011-62, which were part of this discussion, were closed, with consequent filing of Annulment Action No. 5005127-98.2023.4.03.6144 by Valid. At September 30, 2026, the restated amount of these proceedings is R$13,562 (R$10,815 at December 31, 2025).
- In December 2015, the São Paulo State Department of Finance issued a tax assessment notice against the Company, claiming alleged ICMS amounts for the period from January 2012 to December 2013, based on the understanding that ICMS was due on: (i) transfers between establishments under the same ownership; and (ii) shipments to other establishments that had been taxed as services. On April 19, 2017, the appeal was partially granted. Special appeals were subsequently filed and are currently pending judgment. In May 2017, at the judgment session, the adjudicating body unanimously partially granted the Voluntary Appeal filed by the Company and denied the Mandatory Appeal. In July 2017, the São Paulo State Treasury filed a Special Appeal. In August 2017, the Company also filed a Special Appeal and submitted its counterarguments to the Special Appeal filed by the São Paulo State Treasury. The Special Appeals are currently awaiting inclusion on the hearing docket of the São Paulo State Tax and Fees Court ("TIT-SP"). The TIT-SP unanimously ordered a stay of the proceedings pending the judgment of Declaratory Action of Constitutionality No. 49 ("ADC 49") by the Brazilian Federal Supreme Court ("STF"). The matter has since been decided by the STF, which ruled that the levy of ICMS on transactions between establishments under the same ownership is unconstitutional. This decision is binding and is expected to be applied to Valid's case. In May 2025, Valid was notified to comment on the outcome of a review conducted as part of the proceedings. The review recommended that Valid's appeal be denied with respect to the portion of the tax assessment notice concerning the failure to collect ICMS on sales of goods to third parties. Conversely, it recommended that Valid's arguments be granted with respect to the non-payment of ICMS on transfers between its Sorocaba and Barueri establishments from January 2012 to December 2013. Valid submitted its response requesting the full cancellation of Item 1 of the tax assessment notice, on the grounds that transfers occurring solely between establishments under the same ownership, with no change in ownership of the goods, do not constitute a taxable event for ICMS purposes. In February 2026, the TIT-SP issued its decision, determining: (i) the full cancellation of Item I.1, concerning transfers from Sorocaba to Barueri on which no ICMS had been collected; (ii) the definitive recognition that transactions classified under CFOP codes 5.933 and 6.933 are subject to ISS rather than ICMS, as well as the exclusion of R$1,005 assessed in duplicate; (iii) the limitation of late-payment interest on the remaining balance of Item I.2 to the Selic rate; and (iv) the maintenance of the ICMS assessment on the remaining portion of Item I.2, relating to cards, including smart cards, shipped to third parties rather than directly to the contracting party, which were deemed goods subject to ICMS. Consequently, the liability registered by the State, which will be challenged in court, relates solely to Item I.2. As of September 30, 2026, the updated amount related to the proceeding was R$18,974 (R$142,261 as of December 31, 2025).

- In December 2019, the Company was served notices of tax deficiency by the Brazilian IRS related to income and social contribution taxes for calendar years 2014 and 2015. A challenge has been lodged and partially accepted. With a voluntary appeal filed, it is currently awaiting trial at CARF. As at September 30, 2026, the restated amount of this lawsuit is R$35,765 (R$33,795 as of December 31, 2025).
- In December 2016, Valid Certificadora was served a notice of tax deficiency for collection of ISS, due to alleged incorrect classification of the digital certification activity. As of September 30, 2026, the restated amount is R$11,056 (R$10,353 as of December 31, 2025).
- In 2017, as a result of a favorable final and unappealable decision on a suit, Valid began the process to have its PIS and COFINS credits validly reported in September 2018. In December 2018, Valid began transmitting the requests for offsetting through the E-Request for Federal Tax Recovery, Refund or Offset (PER/DCOMP) to use the credits validated and recognized in court, in the amount of R$30,931. However, on May 5, 2023, the Brazilian IRS Office (DRF-Sorocaba) issued an order not validating the offsets requested by the Company, which generated a charge in the amount of R$31,224, plus interest and late payment penalty. On June 6, 2023, Valid filed a protest letter (which awaits trial) challenging the order. As of September 30, 2026, the restated amount is R$61,610 referring to principal, interest, and fine (R$57,796 as of December 31, 2025).
- In August 2023, the Company was served a notice of tax deficiency for allegedly failing to pay ICMS, in the amount of R$58,698, in the periods from January 2019 to December 2020, for issuing electronic invoices without stating the ICMS. The discussion refers to services or products for bank cards. In March 2025, an unfavorable decision was granted at the administrative level. A Motion to Amend the Decision and an Appeal were filed with TIT/SP, which currently pending judgment. As of September 30, 2026, the restated amount is R$77,712 (R$72,606 as of December 31, 2025).

Civil, commercial, criminal, and other proceedings

The main proceedings are summarized below:

- Civil proceeding filed by the Company on July 9, 2007, claiming annulment or otherwise reduction of the fine imposed by ANATEL. The proceeding is currently pending judgment at the appellate court. As of September 30, 2026, the restated amount of the proceedings, considering a refund of amounts received, is R$16,893 (R$16,232 as of December 31, 2025).

- This refers to a preliminary injunction for the seizure of assets determined by virtue of a decision issued by the 10th Federal Criminal Court, which determined the seizure of the Company's assets up to the limit of R$22,742 on December 7, 2021. The Company requested that the amounts frozen be replaced with surety bond. This decision was made in connection with the Police Investigation intended to look into alleged irregularities in the bidding process for printing of the tests of the National High School Exam (ENEM) between 2010 and 2019, in connection with which search and seizure warrants were executed at the Company's plants in December 2021. The Police Investigation was formally closed without the indictment of any representatives or former employees of the Company. On April 8, 2025, the Federal Public Prosecutor's Office filed a complaint, which is still pending analysis by the Federal Judge. The surety bond presented by the Company for the preliminary injunction was accepted. In April 2022, the Company filed an appellate brief and awaits judgment of the appeal. The Company hired a specialized law firm to monitor the progress of the case until its conclusion. As of September 30, 2026, the restated amount of the proceedings is R$34,261 (R$32,052 as of December 31, 2025).

Treasury shares

Since January 2008, the Company has approved, through its Board of Directors, programs to buy back common shares issued by the Company in order to keep them in treasury and, subsequently, dispose of and/or use them to meet obligations stemming from the key management compensation programs.

Considering that the number of shares will always be below the maximum limit, the Board of Directors may review, at any time, the number of authorized shares, and supplement the legal limit of 10% of total outstanding shares. These shares are acquired with the funds from the Company's cash.

Changes in the buyback programs are as follows:

Date of approval	Maximum number to be acquired	% of outstanding shares	End date
11/12/2019	1,000,000 shares	1.45%	05/12/2021
10/19/2021	2,000,000 shares	2.48%	10/20/2022
04/19/2022	1,000,000 shares	1.21%	12/30/2023
05/21/2024	2,000,000 shares	2.57%	11/26/2025

Interest on equity is calculated based on the Long-Term Interest Rate (TJLP) fluctuation, under the terms of Law No. 9249/95, and is accounted for as finance costs, as required by the tax legislation. For financial statements presentation purposes, IOE is presented as a reduction of retained earnings in equity.

Interest on equity is subject to withholding income tax at the rate of 15%, except for immune or exempt shareholders, as determined in Law No. 9249/95.

e) Other comprehensive income

This mainly reflects cumulative translation adjustments of foreign investments and the effects of the fair value of investments described in Note 23.

For management purposes, the Company is organized into business units based on its products and services and has three reportable operating segments:

a) Means of payment

In this segment, integrated products and solutions, such as SIM cards and magnetic stripe cards, gift cards, invoices and bank statements, among others, are offered. In addition, solutions in Radio Frequency Identification - RFID, contactless cards and mobile payments (through TSM - Trusted Service Manager and HCE - Host Card Emulation, via NFC - Near Field Communication) are also offered.

b) Identification

The identification segment provides physical and electronic solutions, such as data collection, storage and management, security prints, recognition and digital printing that meet this demand, in addition to Digital Government solutions. All these technologies make a cross-reference between the database and the data contained in the document or portable media, such as paper, plastic or even electronic communication means, to check authenticity or status. The main identification documents are identity cards, drivers' licenses, professional membership cards, and stamps for brand security and authenticity.

The Company offers a full-service structure, with a wide range of service fronts, which include the generation of computerized systems for the administration of databases, the collection of biometric data, the printing and customization of official identification documents, solutions for Smart Cities, traceable stamps and Digital Certification services.

c) Mobile

The broad telecommunications portfolio offered by the Company includes services of issuing statements and technologies for use in cell phones, in addition to innovations resulting from digital mobility, such as NFC, TSM and HCE solutions for mobile service providers.

In this segment, the Company provides services that improve communication between telephone service providers and their customers, in the development of technologies for use in cell phones – such as recharge and payment – and also in the production of cards intended for telecommunications. SIM Cards are the main product of this business unit.

Focusing on the mobile market trends, Valid is actively participating in the different initiatives associated with the evolution of the SIM card, specifically the one called eSIM (embedded SIM). This new phase of SIM cards considers a broader market since SIM cards are now part of the connectivity related to the initiatives Machine to Machine and Internet of Things (IoT); the SIM card will be used not only in mobile phones but also in other types of devices, such as automobiles, power meters, etc. In this new context, the solution considers not only the SIM card, but also a SIM card activation platform (known as Subscription Manager).

The Company management monitors the operating results of its business units separately for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. Segment performance is evaluated mainly based on the profit allocated by segment, which comprises net revenue less costs, selling and administrative expenses; accordingly, other net operating income and expenses, equity in earnings or losses of investees, finance income (costs) and income and social contribution tax expenses are not considered.

Significant information on profit, assets and liabilities per business segment is summarized below:

"Other operating expenses, net", "Finance income (costs), net", and "Income and social contribution taxes" are presented in the table above on a non-segmented basis, as the Company understands that these items are not directly related to any operating segment.

The Company and its subsidiaries operate in the following geographic areas: Brazil (home country), Spain, Argentina, USA, Colombia, Uruguay, Mexico, Denmark, Republic of Mauritius, Singapore, South Africa, Nigeria, United Arab Emirates, Indonesia, China, India and Germany.

Because they are individually immaterial, revenues and noncurrent assets from operations in foreign countries, except for the USA, Argentina and EMEAA, have been disclosed in the aggregate, as follows:

	Consolidated

(1) Does not include deferred taxes.

(2) The following countries are considered in this line: Denmark, Republic of Mauritius, Singapore, South Africa, United Arab Emirates, Spain, Germany, Indonesia, China, and Nigeria.

d) Information on major customers

In line with IFRS 8 (CPC 22) - Operating Segments, the Company management informs that there is no transaction with one single external customer that accounts for 10% or more of the total revenue of the Company and its subsidiaries.

22. Financial instruments and risk management

The Company and its subsidiaries measured the market value of financial assets and liabilities based on available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. However, market data interpretation and the selection of valuation techniques require considerable judgment and estimates to determine the most appropriate realizable value. Accordingly, the estimates presented do not necessarily reflect the current market values. Use of different market hypotheses and/or methodologies can have a significant impact on estimated realizable values.

Significant financial liabilities of the Company and its subsidiaries refer to debentures, loans and financing and trade accounts payable. The main purpose of the debentures, financing and loans was to raise funds to finance the operations of the Company and its subsidiaries and business combinations, whereas trade and other accounts payable arise directly from their operations. Significant financial assets of the Company and its subsidiaries include cash and cash equivalents, marketable securities, and trade accounts receivable that result directly from their operations.

Fair value measurement

Financial instruments recognized at fair value can be measured at levels 1 to 3, based on the degree to which their fair value is quoted, as follows:

- Level 1: fair value measurement is derived from quoted (unadjusted) prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities;
- Level 2: fair value measurement is derived from other inputs quoted included in Level 1, which are quoted through an asset or liability directly (i.e. as the prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices);
- Level 3: fair value measurement is derived from valuation techniques that include an asset or liability that is not included in an active market.

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities is included in the amount for which a financial instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, and not in a forced sale or settlement.

Except for the balance of loans, financing, debentures and leases, the carrying amounts of financial instruments held by the Company approximates their fair values. In this context, the comparison between the carrying amounts and the corresponding fair values is presented below:

09/30/2026		Individual		Consolidated
Fair value measurement	Fair value hierarchy	Carrying amount	Fair value	Carrying amount	Fair value
Loans, financing and debentures	Level 2	633,622	649,272	692,752	707,867

12/31/2025		Individual		Consolidated
Fair value measurement	Fair value hierarchy	Carrying amount	Fair value	Carrying amount	Fair value
Loans, financing and debentures	Level 2	695,846	716,257	759,006	774,030

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market prices comprise two types of risk: interest rate risk and currency risk.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Profit or loss of the Company and its subsidiaries is subject to changes in interest rates on marketable securities and debentures, which are pegged to the CDI rate. For the Company's most significant loans, the index is pegged to the Libor rate.

Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Company and its subsidiaries' exposure to the risk of changes in foreign exchange rates relates primarily to their operating activities (when revenues or expenses are denominated in a currency other than the functional currency) and the Company's net investments in foreign subsidiaries.

The table below shows the sensitivity of the Company and its subsidiaries to an estimated depreciation/appreciation of the functional currencies by 25% and 50% in relation to subsidiaries with functional currencies other than the Brazilian real. The sensitivity analysis considers the equity of subsidiaries translated into Brazilian reais at the end of the reporting period, considering depreciation/appreciation of 25% and 50% in exchange rates. The depreciation/appreciation of the functional currencies other than the Brazilian real would result in equity reduction/increase at the following amounts:

	Consolidated - 09/30/2026
Currency	Foreign exchange differences - 25%	Foreign exchange differences - 50%
Equity - Argentine pesos	20,202	40,403
Equity - Colombian pesos	4,294	8,587
Equity - Mexican pesos	5,394	10,789
Equity - Uruguayan pesos	986	1,972
Equity - Euro	194,397	388,794
Equity - US dollar	70,080	140,161

The Company records trade accounts payable for equipment and raw material denominated in foreign currency. Therefore, profit or loss is subject to changes in the US dollar and Euro exchange rates. The Company estimates that a possible depreciation of the Brazilian real against the US dollar and Euro by 25% and 50%, respectively, would impact finance costs at September 30, 2026, in the following amounts:

	Consolidated
	09/30/2026		12/31/2025
Currency	Foreign exchange differences 25%	Foreign exchange differences 50%	Foreign exchange differences 25%	Foreign exchange differences 50%
Impact	3.898	7.794	2.999	5.997

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The Company and its subsidiaries are exposed to credit risk from their operating activities (primarily accounts receivable) and from their financing activities, including deposits with banks and financial institutions, foreign exchange transactions and other financial instruments.

Trade accounts receivable are substantially concentrated in major financial institutions, telecommunication companies and state government agencies. Given the reputation and financial soundness of such customers, the Company management does not expect to face difficulties in collecting receivables. The balance receivable is recorded net of estimated losses and, therefore, at the expected realizable value.

Deposits in banks and financial institutions

All transactions of the Company and its direct and indirect subsidiaries are conducted with banks with acknowledged liquidity, which, according to management’s understanding, minimizes the risks thereof.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is defined as the possibility of the Company and its subsidiaries lacking sufficient funds to honor their commitments given the different currencies and the settlement terms of their rights and obligations.

The liquidity and cash flow of the Company and its subsidiaries are monitored daily by management to ensure that cash flows from operations and the prior funding, when necessary, are sufficient to meet their commitment schedule, not generating liquidity risks.

The table below presents the maturities of outstanding financial liabilities at September 30, 2026, and December 31, 2025:

Sensitivity analysis

Generally speaking, the main risks of financial instruments used by the Company are pegged to changes in the Interbank Deposit Certificate (CDI), mainly with respect to obligations on debentures issued and marketable securities.

The Company uses the average CDI rate for finance charges on debentures issued by the Company (plus interest charges) and for yield in the case of marketable securities. Finance charges on loans are represented by Libor plus a fixed contractual rate.

In addition, the Company has trade accounts payable pegged to the US dollar and Euro. However, taking into consideration that these payables mature within 30 days, a sensitivity analysis is not presented as the Company understands that it would not generate any benefits. With a view to analyzing the sensitivity of the index to which the Company's short-term investments were exposed at September 30, 2026, three different scenarios were defined. Based on projections disclosed by B3, dated October 1, 2026, CDI was projected for the next 12 months at 13.54%, which is defined as a probable scenario. From this scenario, index variations of 25% to 50% were calculated

For each scenario, gross finance income from financial investments was calculated, not considering taxes on investment income. The base date used for marketable securities was the balance outstanding at September 30, 2026, with a one-year projection and analysis of the CDI sensitivity in each scenario.

		Individual

Gross finance income			66,306	49,753	33,153

The same analysis was conducted for the balance corresponding to the Company's debentures at September 30, 2026. A percentage of 112.00% was added to the 10th debenture issue and of 100.00% to the 11th debenture issue, resulting in an index of 15.00% for the 10th debenture issue and of 14.00% for the 11th debenture issue, and this scenario was considered the probable scenario. From this scenario, index variations of 25% to 50% were calculated.

Gross finance costs of obligations were calculated for each scenario, without taking into consideration the flow of maturity of installments falling due within the next 12 months. The reporting date used for debentures was the balance outstanding at September 30, 2026, with a one-year projection and analysis of the DI sensitivity in each scenario.

The same analysis was made for the balance corresponding to financing obligations at September 30, 2026. A CDI rate of 13.54% projected and disclosed by Bovespa on October 1, 2026, was taken into consideration and based on this probable scenario, 25% and 50% index variations were calculated, representing the conditions for different scenarios

Transaction	Balance at 09/30/2026	Risk	Probable scenario	Scenario II	Scenario III

Capital management

The Group's objectives in managing its capital are to safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern in order to deliver returns to its shareholders and benefits to other stakeholders, and to maintain an adequate capital structure to reduce this cost. To maintain or adjust capital structure, the Group may revise the policy adopted for payment of dividends, return capital to shareholders and issue new shares to reduce debt, for example.

The Group monitors capital based on financial leverage ratios. One such ratio is the net debt-to-equity ratio. Net debt, on the other hand, corresponds to total loans, financing, and debentures (including short- and long-term debts) net of cash and cash equivalents and restricted marketable securities.

As at September 30, 2026, the Group's net debt amounted to (R$48,405), corresponding to (2.8%) of equity (R$67,295 at December 31, 2025, equivalent to 3.9% of equity).

23. Other investments designated at fair value

On November 29, 2023, the subsidiary Valid Spain entered into an agreement for the sale of 67.5% of its equity interest in Cubic Telecom, equivalent to 8,863,743 shares, for R$171,735 (at the rate effective as at December 31, 2023). As of December 31, 2023, Valid Spain recorded the amount of R$34,011 as "assets available for sale" in connection with this transaction.

On March 6, 2024, the Company concluded the sale for €32 million (approximately R$172,467 at the spot exchange rate), received in full on the transaction date, resulting in a gain of R$136,842, recorded under “Other operating income (expenses), net” in the statements of profit or loss. After the completion and applicable dilutions, the Group still holds, through its subsidiary Valid Spain, 4,261,873 shares, which represents 1.67% of Cubic Telecom’s capital.

With the disposal, the Company lost significant influence over the investee and, consequently, now treats the investment as a financial asset, fully derecognizing the investment and recording it at fair value through other comprehensive income, in accordance with IFRS 9 (CPC 48). As of September 30, 2026, the fair value of the investment was measured at R$120,162 (R$133,172 as of December 31, 2025), generating a loss of R$11,386 for the period (R$18,098 for the quarter ended September 30, 2025), which, net of the corresponding deferred income tax liability of R$2,819 (R$4,752 as of September 30, 2025), totaled a loss of R$8,567 (R$13,346 for the quarter ended September 30, 2025), recorded in other comprehensive income. The fair value was determined based on the total amount of the sale transaction and was classified as level 3 by management.

The selling process is in line with the Company’s strategic planning, which has been focusing, since 2021, on business lines and geographies that present greater competitiveness and differentials for its operations. Therefore, other potential divestments with similar characteristics have been evaluated as potential assets for sale.

24. Insurance coverage

The Company takes out insurance at amounts that cover any claims relating to its industrial plants, considering the nature of its activity and the risks involved in its operations. At September 30, 2026, the Company has the following major insurance policies entered into with third parties:

Type	Currency	Amount insured	Maturity

26. Reconciliation of EBITDA

The Company uses Adjusted EBITDA as the main metric for evaluation of the Company's financial performance. For purposes of compliance with CVM Ruling No. 156 of June 23, 2022, the Company presents below the reconciliation of the EBITDA calculation amounts for the quarter ended September 30, 2026 and 2025.

(1) EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are not financial performance metrics in accordance with the accounting practices adopted in Brazil and the IFRS, nor should they be considered individually or as an alternative to net income, as an operating performance metric, or an alternative to operating cash flows as a liquidity measure. In accordance with CVM Ruling No. 156 of June 23, 2022, EBITDA calculation may not exclude any items that are nonrecurring, nonoperating or operating and is obtained from net income (loss) for the period, plus income taxes, finance income (costs), and depreciation, amortization and depletion. Adjusted EBITDA is used by the Company as an additional financial performance measure and should not be used in replacement for profit or loss. Adjusted EBITDA corresponds to EBITDA adjusted through elimination of the effects of other operating income (expenses), effects of depreciation, amortization, expenses and taxes, on equity in earnings (losses) of investees and other nonrecurring expenses. Other companies may calculate Adjusted EBITDA differently from the Company. As such, Adjusted EBITDA presents limitations that compromise its use as a measure of the Company's profitability, since it does not take into consideration certain costs and expenses in connection with the business, which could significantly affect the Company's profit or loss.
