Management Comments

We closed 2025 with another year of solid financial and operational performance, with a number of all-time records. These results highlight the positive outcome of our Chapter 11 restructuring, concluded in less than nine months as announced in our recent Material Fact dated February 20, 2026. This milestone was only possible because we entered the process already supported by Restructuring Support Agreements with key stakeholders, including existing bondholders, our largest lessor AerCap, and our strategic partners.

Through this comprehensive restructuring effort, we positioned Azul for long-term sustainable growth and significantly increased our resilience. With the support of our main stakeholders, including aircraft lessors, bondholders, and our strategic partners, Azul considerably strengthened its balance sheet, emerging with a net leverage ratio below 2.5x, mainly driven by the reduction of approximately R$6.7 billion in loans and financing and a reduction of more than R$9.8 billion in aircraft lease liabilities versus 2024.

More importantly, during this complete restructuring, we were able to reduce our annual interest payments by 50% and our recurring lease payments by more than 30%, positioning us for sustainable cash flow generation and a continued deleveraging process.

We also increased our liquidity through the successful issuance of US$1.375 billion in Senior Notes – which was over 7x subscribed – and through equity commitments of US$850 million, providing a solid liquidity position upon emergence with an additional US$100 million to fund upon regulatory approval.

Turning to our 2025 results, we reported another year of strong performance, reflecting disciplined execution of our business plan. Total revenue reached an all-time record, supported by healthy demand, effective pricing actions, and solid contributions from our beyond-the-metal business units.

EBITDA expanded to an all-time record of R$6.7 billion in the year, with a margin of 30.4%, confirming once again our industry-leading profitability.

Our business units Azul Fidelidade, Azul Cargo, and Azul Viagens once again delivered outstanding performances and remain key drivers of diversification and incremental profitability. Each unit continued to grow double digits year-over-year, contributing meaningfully to our total revenue and EBITDA.

With the restructuring successfully completed, we enter 2026 better prepared than ever. With our improved balance sheet, disciplined capacity growth, and unique network – 80% of our routes have no direct competition – Azul has a meaningful ability to react to macroeconomic challenges such as the recent increase in fuel prices. We are diligently pursuing a number of actions to mitigate this increase and ensure Azul is the long-term winner in the region.

Our hubs are the most corporate-oriented in Brazil, our business units deliver the strongest premium spend in the market, and our entire fleet is covered under power-by-the-hour agreements, providing predictability in engine maintenance costs. With one of the lowest future aircraft commitments in the region and a world-class balance sheet, Azul is exposed to lower financial and operational risk than peers, who face significantly higher challenges with a higher committed growth, which hinder passing through operational cost increases, higher international exposure, and materially larger upcoming debt obligations.

We are extremely confident about the new Azul prospects. I would like to thank our customers, crew members, partners, creditors, and investors for their trust and support throughout this important phase, and we look forward to implementing our plan to deliver results which will create long-term value for all stakeholders.

John Rodgerson, CEO of Azul S.A.

Azul in 2025

- ✓ Largest airline in Brazil in terms of cities served, offers more than 800 daily flights to 137 destinations.
- ✓ Operating fleet with 170 aircraft with an average age of 7.2 years (excluding Cessna aircraft)
- ✓ 27% of domestic departures and 27% market share (RPK)
- ✓ The fourth most on-time airline in the world

Aviation market

2025 was, once again, a year of strong demand for Azul, with significant improvements in capacity, revenue and earnings compared to the previous year.

During the year, Azul experienced significant growth in both domestic and international markets, and as a result, operating revenue reached once again a record, as demand for Azul flights remained strong. Total operating revenue reached R$21.9 billion, up 12.0% above 2024.

For the full year, EBITDA reached an all-time record R$6.7 billion, an increase of 9.6% compared to 2024, and an EBITDA margin of 30.4%.

In 2025, Azul remained focused on its network, ending the year with a capacity increase of 10.0% year-over-year, and a 12.1% increase in RPKs, resulting in a load factor of 83.2%.

Operating Revenue

In 2025, Azul's total operating revenue increased R$2,347.5 million or 12.0%, reaching a record of R$21.9 billion. Passenger revenue increased 11.6% on 10.0% more capacity compared to the same period last year, due to a healthy demand environment, robust ancillary revenues and the notable performance of our businesses units.

Cargo revenue and other reached R$1.6 billion in 2025, 17.1% higher than 2024, mainly due to the business growth in the fourth quarter, by expanding our diversified customer base with even more retailers, manufacturers, and e-commerce operators in Brazil who value our reliable, far-reaching logistic solutions. RASK and PRASK reached R$42.97 cents and R$39.74 cents respectively, mainly due to the sustainable competitive advantages of our unique business model. Compared to 2024, RASK and PRASK increased 1.9% and 1.5% respectively.

The table below sets forth the breakdown of our operating revenue and expenses per ASK basis for the periods indicated:

Operating Expenses

In 2025, Azul recorded operating expenses of R$18.2 billion, compared to R$16.0 billion in 2024, representing an increase of 13.8%, mainly due to the capacity and revenue increase of 10.0% and 12.0%, respectively in addition to annual inflation of 4.3%, and the increase in legal claims related to irregular operations occurred mostly in 2024, offset by a 5.1% reduction in jet fuel price per liter.

The breakdown of our main operating expenses compared to 2025 is as follows:

- Aircraft fuel increased 2.3% to R$5,710.3 million, mostly due to a 10.0% increase in total capacity and a 7.8% increase in fuel consumption, partially offset by the reduction of 5.1% in fuel price per liter (excluding hedges).
- Salaries and benefits reduced 4.1%, mainly driven by higher productivity and several cost-reduction strategies, partially offset by our capacity increase of 10.0% in 2025, a 4.8% union increase in salaries as a result of collective bargaining agreements with unions applicable to all airline employees in Brazil, and the insourcing of certain activities as total cost reduction initiatives.

- Depreciation and amortization increased 17.5% or R$449.4 million, driven by the increase in the size of our fleet compared to 2024, as a result of the fleet transformation process.
- Airport fees increased 17.0% or R$182.5 million, mostly driven by 28.7% increase in international capacity, for which we pay higher airport fees that are also generally denominated in foreign currency.
- Traffic and customer servicing increased R$84.4 million, mostly due to the 3.4% increase in passengers, and 4.3% inflation in the period, partially offset by the reduction in onboard services.
- Sales and marketing increased 0.2%, or R$1.8 million, mostly driven by higher advertising campaigns and regional events, in addition to the 11.6% growth in our passenger revenue, leading to an increase in credit card fees and commissions.
- Maintenance and repairs reduced R$8.0 million compared to 2024, mainly due to lower maintenance events related to rejected aircraft and 3.7% average appreciation of the real against the dollar and savings from renegotiations with suppliers.
- Other expenses increased R$1,169.9 million, mainly due to an increase in legal claims related to irregular operations occurred mostly in 2024 and 4.3% annual inflation.

Liquidity and Financing

Azul ended the year with R$3.7 billion in immediate liquidity, including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and short-term investments, R$683.4 million higher than the same period in 2024. In October, Azul accessed US$221 million as the last tranche of its US$1.6 billion DIP financing.

Accounts receivable rose 53.4%, or R$947.4 million, compared to December 31, 2024, driven mainly by a deliberate decision to not advance the totality of available credit card receivables. In Brazil, these receivables are predominantly tied to tickets already flown and carry no cardholder credit risk, allowing for immediate access to funds without holdbacks. This structure provides Azul with significant liquidity flexibility, as receivables can be advanced at minimal cost when needed. As of December 31, 2025, the Company had Credit Card Receivables of R$1,976 million (R$740.6 million at December 31, 2024).

Liquidity (R$ million)	2025	2024	% Δ
Cash and cash equivalents	991.6	1,210.0	-18.0%
Short-term investments	26.3	71.9	-63.4%
Accounts receivable	2,722.7	1,775.4	53.4%
Immediate liquidity	3,740.7	3,057.3	22.4%
Cash as % of LTM revenue	17.1%	15.7%	+0.1 p.p.

Gross debt increased 6.2% or R$2,093.6 million compared to December 31, 2024, due to a R$8.1 billion increase on loans and financing due to the DIP accessed in the year, the interest accrued and not paid in the period and the 3.7% end of period appreciation of the Brazilian real against the US dollar.

Excluding lease liabilities that were extinguished and loans and financing that were equitized in 1Q26, our gross debt would have been around R$21 billion.

As of December 31, 2025, Azul's average debt maturity excluding lease liabilities and convertible debentures was 1.6 years, with an average interest rate of 13.4%. Average interest rate on local and dollar-denominated obligations were equivalent to CDI + 4% and 13.2%, respectively.

¹Considers the effect of hedges on debt, net of aircraft sublease receivables; excludes convertible debentures.

Azul's leverage ratio measured as net debt to LTM EBITDA was 4.8x, mainly due to the appreciation of the Brazilian real against the US dollar this year, which impacted our dollar-denominated debt, in addition to the R$6.0 billion debt raised in the year as part of our restructuring plan. This leverage does not consider the conversion of the 1L and 2Ls into equity as part of the Chapter 11 plan, nor the DIP repayment by the sources of the Exit Financing which reduced our leverage to less than 2.5x at emergence in February 2026.

To the Management, Directors, and Shareholders of
Azul S.A.
Barueri – SP

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying individual and consolidated financial statements of Azul S.A. (the Company), identified as parent and consolidated, respectively, which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2025 and the respective statements of income, of comprehensive income, of changes in equity and of cash flows for the year then ended, and the corresponding explanatory notes, including material accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the individual and consolidated financial position of Azul S.A. as of December 31, 2025, its individual and consolidated financial performance and individual and consolidated cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting practices adopted in Brazil and international accounting standards (IFRS Accounting Standards) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Brazilian and International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the "Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the individual and consolidated financial statements" section of our report. We are independent of the Company and its subsidiaries in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements set forth in the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants and the professional standards issued by the Federal Accounting Council applicable to the audits of financial statements of public interest entities in Brazil, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our judgment, were of most significance in our audit in the current year. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the individual and consolidated financial statements taken as a whole and in forming our opinion on such individual and consolidated financial statements and, therefore, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Revenue from passenger transport (including breakage) (Explanatory Note No. 34)

Reason why the matter was considered a key audit matter

The Company recognizes passenger transportation revenue when the related service is actually rendered. Tickets sold but not yet flown are recorded under “Air traffic liability, services to be executed and loyalty program,” net of the estimated breakage of unused tickets. This process is highly dependent on information technology systems and involves significant and complex management assumptions and judgments, such as expectations regarding ticket expiration and patterns of unused tickets, which increase the risk of material misstatement in revenue recognition. Given the materiality of the amounts involved and the level of judgment required in measuring breakage, we determined that this matter required significant attention in our audit and, consequently, it was again considered a key audit matter

How the matter was addressed in the audit of the financial statements

Our audit procedures included, among others:

- We obtained an understanding of the automated IT internal controls used by management for recording and monitoring passenger transportation revenue, as well as the system parameters applied to estimate revenue arising from the expiration of unused tickets (breakage);
- We performed analytical audit procedures using an automated audit tool (Audit Data Analytics – ADA) to identify patterns, significant variances, and potential inconsistencies in passenger transportation revenue;
- On a sample basis of selected flights, we performed boarding observations to verify passenger embarkation and the corresponding revenue recording in the Company’s systems;
- We performed substantive tests, also on a sample basis, to verify whether revenue transactions were adequately supported by evidence and properly recognized;
- We challenged the assumptions used by management to calculate breakage, with the support of our internal actuarial specialists, assessing the reasonableness of the model adopted, the historical data utilized, and the consistency of the assumptions applied by management;
- We evaluated whether the disclosures presented in the notes to the financial statements were clear, complete, and consistent with the information obtained during the audit and with the representations provided by management.

Based on the evidence obtained and the audit procedures performed, we consider that Management’s procedures for the recognition of transportation revenue, services to be executed, and the loyalty program (including breakage), as well as the related note disclosures, are appropriate in the context of the Company’s individual and consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

Going Concern Assessment (Explanatory Notes Nos. 2 and 40)

Reason why the matter was considered a key audit matter

The individual and consolidated financial statements were prepared using the going concern assumption, based on management’s assessment that the Company will continue to operate for the foreseeable future, and for at least twelve months from the financial statement date. This assessment considers that management has no intention to liquidate the Company or cease its operations and that it has plans and actions in place capable of supporting its continued operations.

Although the Company reported net income of R$ 124,858 thousand for the year ended December 31, 2025 (individual e consolidated), as of that same date it had a negative shareholders’ equity of R$ 29,038,062 thousand (individual e consolidated), as well as an excess of current liabilities over current assets amounting to R$ 148,063 thousand (individual) and R$ 23,169,625 thousand (consolidated). As disclosed in the accompanying notes, management has implemented and continues to pursue actions and plans aimed at restoring its capital structure, improving liquidity, and sustaining its operations.

The going concern assessment involves the use of assumptions and cash flow projections that require significant and subjective management judgment, particularly with respect to cash generation capacity, macroeconomic assumptions, timing of funding initiatives, and the execution of plans contemplated in ongoing renegotiations with creditors, among other actions which form part of the ongoing restructuring plan. Accordingly, due to the level of judgment involved, combined with the materiality of the balances and the financial indicators observed, this matter was again considered one of the key audit matters for our current-year audit.

How the matter was addressed in the audit of the financial statements

Our audit procedures included, among others:

- We evaluated the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to continue their operations for the foreseeable future, based on the information and evidence provided by management;
- We reviewed the methodology and assumptions used by management in the going concern assessment for the twelve-month period from the financial statement date (individual and consolidated), as well as the related cash flow projections, including the assessment of relevant subsequent events up to the date of issuance of the individual and consolidated financial statements;
- With the support of our internal corporate finance specialists, we assessed the assumptions used in cash flow projections, considering realized results and the consistency of projections and performance observed in prior periods;
- We analyzed ongoing restructuring activities, cost-reduction initiatives, and the expected profitability over the twelve-month horizon in order to support the Company's ability to continue operating;
- We reviewed the debt renegotiation schedule and the feasibility of future financing sources when available; and
- We evaluated whether the disclosures in the notes to the financial statements were adequate, consistent, and complete in relation to the information and representations obtained during the audit.

Based on the audit procedures performed and the evidence obtained, we consider reasonable the judgments exercised and the assumptions adopted by the Company's Management in assessing the going concern assumption, as well as the related disclosures, in the context of the individual and consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

Other matters

Statements of value added

The individual and consolidated statements of value added (DVA) for the year ended December 31, 2025, prepared under the responsibility of the Company's management and presented as supplemental information for IFRS purposes, have been subject to auditing procedures which were performed together with the audit of the Company's financial statements. In forming our opinion, we evaluated if these statements are reconciled to the financial statements and accounting records, as applicable, and if their form and content are in accordance with the criteria defined in NBC TG 09 – Statement of Value Added. In our opinion, these statements of value added were appropriately prepared, in all material respects, according to the criteria defined in said technical pronouncement and are consistent in relation to the individual and consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

Other information accompanying the individual and consolidated financial statements and auditor's report thereon

The Company's Management is responsible for this other information that is included in the Management Report.

Our opinion on the individual and consolidated financial statements does not cover the Management Report and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with the audit of the individual and consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the Management's Report and, in doing so, consider whether that report is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or with our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement in the Management's Report, we are required to communicate that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and those charged with governance for the individual and consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the individual and consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting practices adopted in Brazil and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) (currently denominated IFRS Accounting Standards), and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the individual and consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the financial statements, unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with the Company's and its subsidiaries' governance are responsible for overseeing the individual and consolidated financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibility for the audit of the individual and consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the individual and consolidated financial statements, taken as a whole, are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Brazilian and International Standards on Auditing will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Brazilian and International Standards on Auditing, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the individual and consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve override of internal control, collusion, forgery, intentional omissions or misrepresentations;
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's and its subsidiaries' internal controls;
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management;
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the individual and consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern;
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure, and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the individual and consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation; and
- Obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial statements of the entities or business activities within the group to express an opinion on the individual and consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the group audit and, consequently, for the audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we may have identified during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements, including those regarding independence, and communicate to them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and, where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determined those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements for the current year and are, therefore, the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our audit report, unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

1. OPERATIONS

Azul S.A. (“Azul”), together with its subsidiaries (“Company”) is a corporation governed by its bylaws, as per Law No. 6404/76 and by the corporate governance level 2 listing regulation of B3 S.A. – Brasil, Bolsa, Balcão (“B3”). The Company was incorporated on January 3, 2008, and its core business comprises the operation of regular and non-regular airline passenger services, cargo or postal mail, passenger charter, provision of maintenance and hangarage services for aircraft, engines, parts and components, aircraft acquisition and lease, development of frequent-flyer programs, development of related activities and equity holding in other companies since the beginning of its operations on December 15, 2008.

The Company carries out its activities through its subsidiaries, mainly Azul Linhas Aéreas Brasileiras S.A. (“ALAB”) and Azul Conecta Ltda. (“Conecta”), which hold authorization from government authorities to operate as airlines and ATS Viagens e Turismo Ltda (“Azul Viagens”) for tourism services.

Azul’s shares are traded on B3 and are suspended from trading on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) as a result of the voluntary financial reorganization process under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

The Azul is headquartered at Avenida Marcos Penteado de Ulhôa Rodrigues, 939, 8th floor, in the city of Barueri, state of São Paulo, Brazil.

1.2 Seasonality

The Company's operating revenues depend substantially on the general volume of passenger and cargo traffic, which is subject to seasonal changes. Our passenger revenues are generally higher during the summer and winter holidays. Considering the distribution of fixed costs, this seasonality tends to cause variations in operating results between periods of the fiscal year.

2. GOING CONCERN

2.1 Management Statement

The Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared based on the going concern assumption going to consider that the Company will maintain its operations in the normal course of business and will be able to meet its obligations as they become due.

Management assessed the Company's ability to continue as a going concern considering a minimum horizon of 12 months from the authorization date for the issuance of these financial statements, including subsequent events occurring up to that date.

In carrying out this assessment, the following were considered:

- The business plan approved by the Board of Directors;
- The implementation of financial restructuring measures throughout 2025;
- The judicial confirmation of the Reorganization Plan in December 2025;
- The completion of the reorganization process in February 2026; and
- The updated projections of cash flow and liquidity position.

Based on these analyses, even with the negative working capital, Management concluded that there are no relevant material uncertainties that may raise significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue operating in the foreseeable future, and therefore the use of the going concern assumption is appropriate.

Financial Restructuring and Chapter 11 Process

Context and Start of the Process

During the first quarter of 2025, the Company implemented measures aimed at improving its liquidity and reducing leverage, including renegotiations with financial creditors, lessors, and suppliers, as well as a public offering of shares and the partial restructuring of debt instruments.

On May 28, 2025, the Company initiated a voluntary financial reorganization process under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, with the objective of:

- Significantly reducing its indebtedness;
- Adjusting lease agreements;
- Strengthening its liquidity;
- Restructuring its capital structure and governance.

During the process, the Company entered into an agreement related to the General Unsecured Claims ("GUC"), which correspond to unsecured, non-priority claims represented by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors ("UCC"), and the following terms were defined in the Plan:

- creditors with claims exceeding US$12.5 million may choose to receive a portion of a total of US$20 million in cash or participate in the "Fundo GUC", which provides subscription warrants of up to 5.5% of the Company's share capital, subject to the Company's market value, in addition to additional payments tied to future financial performance and coverage of certain administrative expenses;
- creditors with claims below US$12.5 million will receive a portion of a total of US$3.0 million; and
- specific negotiations were established with strategic suppliers.

The process also received support from key creditors, lessors, and strategic investors. Debtor-in-Possession (DIP) financing was obtained, intended for refinancing certain obligations and strengthening liquidity during the reorganization period.

Throughout the process, the Company maintained its operations in the normal course of business.

Plan Confirmation

On December 12, 2025, the competent Court approved the Reorganization Plan (“Plan”), representing an important and binding milestone in the process.

The Plan included, among other aspects:

- Conversion of the 1L and 2L debts into equity;
- Implementation of a debt capitalization public offering;
- Public offering by new capital;
- Implementation of a Management Incentive Plan;
- Conversion of preferred shares into common shares;
- Restructuring of corporate governance; and
- Transition to a broadly dispersed shareholder structure with no controlling shareholder.

On December, 2025, the Company recognized in its accounting the effects arising from the extinguishment and modification of financial obligations, renegotiations of lease agreements, and other contractual changes already completed. On February 20, 2026, the Company completed its formal exit from the Chapter 11 process, following the verification of the conditions set forth in the Plan.

2.2 Non-binding Memorandum of Understanding

In September 2025, the Company, in continuity with the Material Fact disclosed on January 15, 2025, announced the termination of commercial discussions with the parent company of Gol Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (“Gol”), which were formalized in the Non-Binding Memorandum of Understanding (“MoU”), outlining the terms and conditions of a potential business combination between Azul and Gol. As of December 31, 2025, there is no obligation or contingents’ liabilities related to this transaction.

2.3 Net working capital and capital structure

As of December 31, 2025, the Company's working capital and equity position are as shown below:

Description	December 31, 2025	December 31, 2024	Variation
Net working capital	(23,169,625)	(15,684,277)	(7,485,348)
Equity	(29,038,062)	(30,435,270)	1,397,208

The variation in the net working capital balance is mainly due to the raising of financing in the form of DIP to settle other debts. This financing is part of the Company's restructuring plan.

The variation in equity is mainly due to the Company's net income for the period, in the amount of R$124,858, and the effects related to capital increases as part of the restructuring, totaling R$1,202,650.

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION AND PRESENTATION OF THE INDIVIDUAL AND CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company's individual and consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting practices adopted in Brazil and the International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"). The accounting practices adopted in Brazil comprise those included in Brazilian corporate law and the pronouncements, guidelines, and technical interpretations issued by the Brazilian Accounting Pronouncements Committee ("CPC") and approved by the Federal Accounting Council ("CFC") and the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission ("CVM").

The Company's individual and consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the Brazilian real ("R$") as the functional and presentation currency. All amounts are presented in thousands, except when otherwise indicated.

The Company primarily operates through its aircraft and other assets that support flight operations, which together comprise its cash-generating unit (CGU) and its sole reportable segment: air transportation.

The preparation of the Company's individual and consolidated financial statements requires Management to exercise judgment, apply estimates, and adopt assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses. However, the uncertainty associated with these judgments, estimates, and assumptions may result in outcomes that require significant adjustments to the carrying amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses in future reporting periods.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared based on the historical cost, except for the significant items below:

Fair value:

- Long-term investments – TAP Bond;
- Derivative financial instruments; and
- Conversion option on debentures.

Other:

- Investments measured under the equity method.

3.1 Approval and authorization for issue of the individual and consolidated financial statements

The approval and authorization for issue of these individual and consolidated financial statements occurred at the Board of Directors' meeting held on March 26, 2026.

4. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND PRACTICES

The material accounting policies and practices adopted by the Company are described in each corresponding note, except those that refer to more than one note, described below. The accounting policies have been consistently applied for the comparative years presented and for the Company's individual and consolidated financial statements.

4.1 Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include information about the Company and its subsidiaries in which it held direct or indirect control. Control of a subsidiary is achieved when the Company is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns in such subsidiaries and has the power to influence the investee's operating and financial decisions.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries have been prepared using the same accounting policies as the Company.

All assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses related to transactions between related parties are eliminated in full in the consolidation process.

4.2 Impairment

The Company performs an annual review for impairment indicators to assess events or changes in economic, technological, or operating conditions that may indicate that an asset is impaired.

The recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is the higher of its fair value, less costs to sell and its value in use. When the carrying amount of an asset or cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognized by reducing the carrying amount.

The previously recognized impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount. The reversal is limited, so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor does it exceed the carrying amount previously determined, net of depreciation or amortization.

In estimating the asset's value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects the weighted average cost of capital.

4.3 Value Added Statement ("VAS")

The Value Added Statement (VAS) is intended to present the wealth generated by the Company and its distribution during a given year. It is presented in accordance with Brazilian corporate legislation as an integral part of the Company's individual financial statements and as supplementary information to the consolidated financial statements, as it is not a statement required under IFRS standards. The VAS is prepared based on information obtained from the accounting records, in accordance with the provisions of CPC 09 – Value Added Statement.

4.4 Accounting standards, changes and interpretations

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the IFRS and or CPC issued and amended its accounting standards on various matters, some of which are applicable to the preparation of these financial statements.

4.4.1 Changes new standards and relevant accounting interpretations effective from 2025

The following accounting standards and interpretations described below became effective as of January 1, 2025.

Standard	Description
CPC 02 – equivalent to IAS 21	Effect of exchange rate changes and the possible lack of currency convertibility
CPC 18 – equivalent to IAS 28	Use of the equity method for measuring investments in subsidiaries
ICPC 09	Review for alignment of wording and reference, particularly with CPC 18 and international standards (IAS 28), consolidating the rules for the equity method
OCPC 10	Recognition and measurement of carbon credits (tCO ₂ e), emission allowances, and decarbonization credits (CBIO).

4.4.2 Changes, new standards and relevant accounting interpretations effective from 2026

The following accounting standards will become effective in the coming years, and the Company is assessing their impact on the individual and consolidated financial statements.

Standard	Description
CPC 48 – equivalent to IFRS 9	Review of the rules for classifying and measuring financial assets with variable and non-linear cash flows
CPC 51 – equivalent to IFRS 18	Replaces CPC 26 (R1) (IAS 1) and introduces changes in the presentation and disclosure of the Financial Statements.
IFRS 19	Disclosure of subsidiaries without public accountability
CPC 03 and CPC 40 – equivalent to IAS 7 and IFRS 7	Increase transparency regarding liquidity risk and the maturities of financial instruments, loans and financing

4.5 Main accounting estimates

As disclosed in note 3, Management performs judgments that have a significant effect on the amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements, namely:

Description	Notes
Provision for loss on short and long-term investments	7
Provision for loss with deposits	10
Impairment for property and equipment	16
Impairment for intangible assets	18
Accounts payable – Breakage – GUC (General Unsecured Claims)	22
Air traffic liability, services and loyalty program – Breakage	25
Provision for return of aircraft and engines	28.1.1
Provision for tax, civil and labor risks	28.1.2

The Company continually reviews the assumptions used in its accounting estimates. The effect of revisions on accounting estimates is recognized in the financial statements in the period in which such revisions are made.

4.6 Foreign currency transactions

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the exchange rate at the transaction date. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currency are determined based on the exchange rate in effect on the balance sheet date, and any difference resulting from currency conversion is recorded under the heading “Foreign currency exchange, net” in the statements of operation.

The exchange rates to Brazilian reais are as follows:

Description	Final exchange rates			Average exchange rates
	December 31, 2025	December 31, 2024	Variation %	December 31, 2025	December 31, 2024	Variation %

Euro	6.4692	6.4363	0.5%	6.3095	6.2275	1.3%

5. SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company considers that it has a single reportable segment: air transport. This segment corresponds to 98.3% (98.7% as of December 31, 2024) of the Company's revenues. The Company's activities have functional relationship, making them inseparable from other revenues and reflects the way Management analyzes financial information to make decisions. The main decision makers are the Company's executive directors.

Revenue	Consolidated
	December 31, 2025	%	December 31, 2024	%
Air transport	21,282,948	98,3%	19,278,094	98,7%

Total	21,640,393	100,0%	19,526,208	100,0%

6. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

6.1 Accounting policies

Include cash balances, bank deposits and short-term investments with immediate liquidity, which are readily convertible into a known amount of cash with an insignificant risk of change in value and that are not pledged as collateral for other transactions.

7. SHORT AND LONG-TERM INVESTMENTS

7.1 Accounting policies

In the presentation and measurement of the financial investments, the Company considers the provisions of CPC 48 - Financial Instruments, equivalent to IFRS 9, which determines that financial assets should be initially measured at fair value less costs directly attributable to their acquisition. In turn, the subsequent measurement is divided into two categories:

7.1.1 Amortized cost

Long-term investments are measured at amortized cost when all the following conditions are met:

- The Company plans to hold the financial assets to collect cash flows set forth in contract;
- Contractual cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest (“SPPI”); and
- The Company did not opt for the fair value methodology to eliminate measurement inconsistencies or an “accounting mismatch”.

7.1.2 Fair value

- Through comprehensive income: short and long-term investments shall be measured at fair value through comprehensive income when both of the following conditions are met:
 - (i) the Company plans to hold the financial asset to collect cash flows set forth in contract and sell the asset; and
 - (ii) contractual cash flows represent SPPI.
- Through profit or loss: it is a residual category, in other words, the Company does not plan to hold the financial asset to collect cash flows set forth in contract and/or sell the asset, it shall be measured at fair value through profit or loss.

7.2 TAP Bond

On March 14, 2016, the Company acquired Series A convertible debt issued by TAP (“Bond TAP”) in the amount of €90 million. The Bond TAP has a maturity of 10 years from its issuance date, bearing annual interest of 3.75% until September 20, 2016, and 7.5% in subsequent years, payable at maturity or upon early redemption of the bonds, whichever occurs first.

Considering the circumstances currently observed, Management review the fair value of the related financial investment, as of December 31, 2025. The negative variation resulting from this remeasurement was recognized in the statements of operations for the year.

The measurement reflects Management’s best estimate as of the current date and does not represent a waiver of rights or any change in the Company’s legal position with respect to its contractual rights

The Company will continue to monitor the legal developments and will prospectively revise the fair value measurement.

7.3 Breakdown of short and long-term investments

8. ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

8.1 Accounting policies

Are measured based on the invoiced amount, net of the provision for losses, and approximate the fair value given their short-term nature.

Considering the requirements of CPC 48 - Financial Instruments, equivalent to IFRS 9, the provision for losses on accounts receivable are measured by applying the simplified approach, through the use of historical data, projecting the expected loss over the life of the contract, by segmenting the receivables portfolio into groups that have the same pattern of collection and according to the respective maturities. Additionally, for certain cases, the Company carries out individual analyses to assess the risks of collecting the receivables to recognize an additional provision, if necessary.

The Company renegotiated several lease agreements directly with the counterparties as part of the Chapter 11 process. Following the formal approval of the Plan, and based on the best expectations and information available, credits were offset against amounts payable to those same lessors, totaling R$1,345.

In Brazil, credit card receivables are not exposed to credit risk of the cardholder. The balances can easily be converted into cash, when necessary, through advance payment with credit card companies.

Provision for losses	(22,815)	(27,724)
Total	2,752,194	1,775,374

Past-due balances over 90 days mainly correspond to amounts owed by aircraft manufacturers that are included in the Chapter 11 restructuring process. The Company conducts discussions with these manufacturers and, based on the progress of the negotiations and the established commercial relationship, maintains the expectation of receiving the recorded amounts.

As of March 20, 2026, of the total amount due, R$108,614 has been received.

9. INVENTORIES

9.1 Accounting policies

Mainly comprise parts, rotatable components and maintenance materials. Inventories are measured at average acquisition cost plus expenses such as non-recoverable taxes, customs expenses, and transportation expenses. Expenses with freight transfers between operational bases are not capitalized. Provisions for obsolescence are recognized for items not expected to be used or sold.

10. DEPOSITS

10.1 Accounting policies

10.1.1 Security deposits

They are represented by amounts deposited by the Company, primarily with aircraft and engine lessors, as collateral for the fulfillment of lease agreements. Security deposits are non-interest-bearing and are refundable upon termination of the contracts. Judicial deposits are also classified within this group.

10.1.2 Maintenance reserves

Certain master lease agreements provide for the payment of aircraft and engine maintenance reserves made to be held as collateral for the performance of major maintenance activities, and therefore reimbursable upon completion of the maintenance event in an amount not to exceed the lesser of:

- the amount of the maintenance reserve held by the lessor associated with the specific maintenance event; or

AZUL S.A.

Notes

December 31, 2025

(In thousands of Brazilian reais – R$, unless otherwise indicated)

- the costs related to the specific maintenance event.

Substantially all payments made as maintenance reserves are calculated based on a usage measure, such as flight hours or cycles.

As of the date of these individual and consolidated financial statements, the Company assessed whether maintenance reserves will be recovered through reimbursement of future maintenance expenditures on leased assets. Amounts identified as non-recoverable are recognized in the statements of operations for the year.

Maintenance reserves related to aircraft and engines are classified as current or non-current based on the expected timing of their recovery.

(a) In 2025, the Company recognized the drawdown of letters of credit used for security deposits and maintenance reserves in the amounts of R$607,597 and R$1,268,263, respectively. The drawdown of these letters of credit resulted in the recognition of an obligation to the issuing financial institution, and therefore the amounts were recorded as an increase in the "Loans and financing".

Notes

December 31, 2025

(In thousands of Brazilian reais – R$, unless otherwise indicated)

The Company renegotiated several lease agreements directly with the counterparties as part of the Chapter 11 process. Following the formal approval of the Plan, and based on the best expectations and information available, credits were offset against amounts payable to those same lessors, totaling R$1,508,054.

The movement of the provision for loss is as follows:

Description	Consolidated

Balances at the end of the year	(725,591)	(238,088)

The increase in the provision for loss reflects the new set of conditions agreed with lessors and Management's best judgment regarding future maintenance obligations.

11. TAXES RECOVERABLE

11.1 Accounting policies

They represent rights to be realized (tax credits) arising from various federal and state taxes, calculated in accordance with applicable legislation and intended to be offset against future liabilities.

The Company continually reviews the realizability of these assets. When necessary, provisions are made to ensure that these assets are accounted for at their realizable value.

(a) The reduction refers mainly to the renegotiation of contracts with maintenance suppliers and the allocation of fundraising costs to "Loans and financing."

The Company renegotiated several lease agreements directly with the counterparties as part of the Chapter 11 process. As a result of the formal approval of the Plan, and based on the best expectations and information available, credits recognized in 2025 were offset against amounts payable to those same lessors, totaling R$330,144.

14. INCOME TAX AND CONTRIBUTION

14.1 Accounting policies

14.1.1 Current taxes

In Brazil, current taxes comprise corporate income tax ("IRPJ") and social contribution on net income ("CSLL"), which are calculated monthly based on taxable profit, after offsetting tax losses and negative basis social contribution, limited to 30% of real profit. A rate of 15% plus an additional 10% for IRPJ and 9% for CSLL applies to this base.

The result from foreign subsidiaries is subject to taxation in accordance with the rates and legislation in force. In Brazil such income is taxed in accordance with Law No. 12,973/14, in which it provides that the direct or indirect parent company of a foreign subsidiary must include such subsidiary's results when calculating the taxable profit (lucro real – Brazilian tax regime) real profit for the period.

14.1.2 Deferred taxes

Deferred taxes represent credits and liabilities related to tax losses for Corporate Income Tax (IRPJ) and negative tax bases for Social Contribution on Net Income (CSLL), as well as temporary differences between the tax basis and the accounting basis. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current. When the Company's internal studies indicate that the future utilization of these credits is not probable, such amounts are recognized in statements of operations.

Projections of future taxable profits related to tax loss carryforwards and negative social contribution tax bases are prepared based on the business plans and are reviewed and approved annually by the Board of Directors.

14.1.3 Uncertainty over income tax treatments

On January 1, 2019, the accounting standard ICPC 22 – Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments, equivalent to IFRIC 23, became effective, addressing the application of recognition and measurement requirements when there is uncertainty over income tax treatments.

The Company analyzes the relevant tax decisions of higher courts and whether they conflict in any way with the positions adopted. For known uncertain tax positions, when necessary, the Company establishes a provision based on the legal opinions issued by its legal advisors. The Company evaluates continuously the positions taken in which there are uncertainties about the tax treatment adopted.

16. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

16.1 Accounting policies

The assets included in property and equipment are recorded at acquisition cost.

Depreciation is calculated according to the estimated economic useful life of each asset using the straight-line method. The estimates and depreciation methods are reviewed annually, and the effects of any changes are accounted for prospectively.

When there are indications of assets recorded with values that exceed their recovery values, the Company shall estimate the recoverable of the asset.

An item of property and equipment is derecognized upon its disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from the use of the asset. Any gains or losses arising on the sale or derecognition of an item are determined by the difference between the amount received on the sale and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in Statements of Operations.

The Company receives credit from manufacturers when purchasing certain aircraft and engines, which can be used to pay for maintenance services. These credits are recorded as a reduction in the acquisition cost of aircraft and related engines.

16.1.1 Sales and leaseback transactions

First, sale and leaseback transactions are analyzed within the scope of CPC 47 – Revenue from Contracts with Customers, equivalent to IFRS 15 – Revenue from Contracts with Customers, in order to verify whether the performance obligation has been satisfied, and therefore to account for the sale of the asset. If this requirement is not met, it is accounted for as a financing transaction with the asset pledged as collateral.

If the requirements related to the performance obligation set out are met, the Company measures a right-of-use asset arising from the sale and leaseback transaction in proportion to the carrying amount of the asset related to the right of use retained by the Company. Accordingly, only the gains or losses related to the rights transferred to the buyer-lessor are recognized.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company carried out sale-and-leaseback transactions and engine sales, in which revenue, net of selling costs, amounted to a gain of R$60,270 (R$91,613 as of December 31, 2024), recognized under “Other costs of services rendered.

16.1.2 Advance payments for acquisition of aircraft

Prepayments for the acquisition of aircraft during the manufacturing phase are recorded in property and equipment and are recognized when such amounts are paid.

17. RIGHT-OF-USE ASSETS

17.1 Accounting policies

CPC 06 (R2) – Leases, equivalent to IFRS 16, establishes the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leasing transactions and requires lessees at the start date of the contract to recognize a lease liability to make payments and an asset representing the right to use the underlying asset during the lease term (“Right of Use – ROU”). Lessees must separately recognize interest expenses on the lease liability and the depreciation expense of the right-of-use asset in the statements of operations.

Lessees are also required to reassess the lease liability in the event of certain events, for example, change in the lease term, or a change in future lease payment flows as a result of a change in an index or rate used to determine such payments. In general, the lessee must recognize the remeasurement amount of the lease liability as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset.

Considering the dollar-denominated environment in which the Company raises funds, in determining the discount, the Company used as a basis the funding rates for loans and financing in foreign currency on the start and/or modification dates of the lease agreements.

17.1.1 Componentization of aircraft

At the receipt and initial recognition of right-of-use assets, the Company allocates the total cost of the aircraft between five major components: airframe, auxiliary power unit (“APU”) or propeller landing gear and two engines. The useful life of each component is limited to the final term of the contract/and or the estimated useful life of the asset component, the smaller one of those.

17.1.2 Capitalization of heavy maintenance events

Heavy maintenance events that extend the useful life of the assets are capitalized.

Subsequently, they are depreciated over the period of use, over the shorter of the estimated timing of the next maintenance event and the remaining lease term. Repairs and other routine maintenance are recognized in profit or loss when incurred.

17.1.3 Recognition of contractual obligations relating to return of assets

The maintenance events to be performed for the return of the assets to lessors are recognized as a provision at present value, increasing the value of the asset as a balancing item to an obligation, if they can be reasonably estimated. Assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the lease contract term, while liabilities are updated by interest rates and exchange effects.

18. INTANGIBLE ASSETS

18.1 Accounting policies

18.1.1 Finite useful life

Intangible assets acquired are measured at cost at the time of their initial recognition. After initial recognition, intangible assets with finite useful lives, generally software, are stated at cost, less accumulated amortization, and accumulated impairment losses, where applicable. Intangible assets generated internally, excluding development costs, are not capitalized and the expense is reflected in the Statements of Operations for the year when it was incurred.

18.1.2 Indefinite useful life

18.1.2.1 Goodwill

This category includes amounts related to goodwill arising from the business combinations of IntelAzul (TRIP Linhas Aéreas S.A.) and Conecta (Two Taxi Aéreo Ltda.). Goodwill is tested annually by comparing its carrying amount with its value in use. Management exercises judgment and establishes assumptions to assess the impact of macroeconomic and operational changes in order to estimate future cash flows and measure the recoverable amount of the assets.

18.1.2.2 Rights of operations in airports (slots)

In the business combinations of IntelAzul (TRIP Linhas Aéreas S.A.) and Conecta, slots were acquired and recognized at their fair values at the acquisition date and are not amortized and is tested annually for impairment. The estimated useful life of these rights was considered indefinite due to several factors and considerations, including regulatory requirements and operating authorizations in Brazil, as well as the limited availability of operating rights at the most important airports in terms of air traffic volume. The carrying amount of the slots is tested annually by comparing the carrying amount with the value in use.

18.3 Impairment of intangible assets without a finite useful life

As of December 31, 2025, the Company performed annual impairment tests of the carrying amount using discounted cash flow of the cash-generating unit (CGU).

The assumptions used in the impairment tests are consistent with the Company's operating plans and internal projections, prepared for a five-year period. After this period, a perpetual growth rate is assumed for the operating projections. The discounted cash flow that determined the value in use of the cash-generating unit was prepared in accordance with the Company's business plan.

The following assumptions were considered:

- Fleet and capacity: plan for operational fleet, utilization and capacity of aircraft in each route;
- Passenger revenue: revenue per available seat kilometer;
- Operating costs: specific performance indicators by cost line, as well as macroeconomic assumptions; and
- Investment needs: aligned with the Company's business plan.

The macroeconomic assumptions commonly adopted include the Gross Domestic Product ("GDP") and projections of the US dollar, both obtained from the Focus Report issued by the Central Bank of Brazil, in addition to future kerosene barrel prices and interest rates, obtained from specific.

The result of the test demonstrated that the estimated recoverable value is greater than the carrying value allocated to the cash generating unit and, therefore, no adjusted to be recognized during the year ended December 31, 2025.

19.4 Restructuring

19.4.1 Senior Notes

During the first quarter of 2025, in exchange for the substantial balance of Senior Notes 2028, 2029 and 2030 – (“Existing Notes”), the subsidiary Azul Secured issued Senior Notes 1L – 2028 and Senior Notes 2L – 2029 and 2030 with the following conditions:

- Senior Notes 1L – 2028: R$6,180,810 (equivalent to US$1,048,839) in principal amount, on a first-lien basis, due in 2028, remuneration of 11.9% p.a. and incorporation into the principal of fees in the amount of R$396,779;
- Senior notes 2L – 2029: R$1,443,339 (equivalent to US$238,015) in principal amount, on a second-lien basis, maturing in 2029, remuneration of 11.5% p.a. and incorporation of interest into the principal of R$26,854; and
- Senior notes 2L – 2030: R$3,309,622 (equivalent to US$546,620) in principal amount, on a second-lien basis, maturing in 2030, remuneration of 10.9% p.a. and incorporation of interest into the principal of R$58,290.

The Senior Notes 1L – 2028 are guaranteed on a first lien basis after the payments of the super-priority Notes, but before the payments of the Senior Notes 2L – 2029 and 2030, in addition to other debts and other obligations, as per priorities established in an agreement between creditors. The guarantee package consists of the fiduciary assignment of the flow of receivables of Azul Viagens, the loyalty program and the fiduciary sale of the intellectual property of the loyalty program.

In addition, the Company has executed supplemental indentures to amend the terms of the Existing Notes in accordance with its solicitation of consents to substantially eliminate all restrictive covenants, events of default and collateral.

In accordance with CPC 48 – Financial Instruments equivalent to IFRS 9, the Company concluded that the renegotiation falls within the scope of debt extinguishment. Therefore, the proportional amounts previously recorded were extinguished and a new debt was recorded. For this reason, any costs or fees incurred were recognized in the Statements of Operations.

Notes

December 31, 2025

(In thousands of Brazilian reais – R$, unless otherwise indicated)

In the second quarter of 2025, the Company converted R$1,613,050 of the principal amount of the Senior notes 2L – 2029 and 2030 into 450,572,669 preferred shares, with an issuance price of R$3.58 per share and a fair value of R$1.95 per share, and recognized a gain of R$734,433 in the Statements of Operations under the line item “Debt into equity conversion”.

19.4.2 Debentures

In September 2025, the Company renegotiated the terms of its non-convertible debentures, resulting in the extension of the maturity date to February 2031, the change in the amortization frequency of principal and interest to monthly payments starting in March 2026 and September 2025, respectively, and the adjustment of the remuneration rate to CDI + 3% per annum as from September 2025.

In accordance with CPC 48 – Financial Instruments equivalent to IFRS 9, the Company concluded that the renegotiation falls within the scope of debt extinguishment. Consequently, the previously recorded proportional amounts were derecognized, and a new liability was recognized. For this reason, costs or fees incurred were recognized in the statements of operations.

19.5 Relevant Funding

19.5.1 Superpriority notes

During the first quarter of 2025, the subsidiary Azul Secured issued superpriority notes in a private placement, in the principal amount of R$3,093,825 (equivalent to US$525,000), with costs of R$315,190, interest equivalent to SOFR Index + 8.3% p.a. (if paid in cash) or + 10.7% p.a. (if capitalized), quarterly interest payments, the first in February 2025, and due in January 2030.

Additionally, interest in the amount of R$27,508 was incorporated into the principal. In July 2025, the balance was settled.

19.5.2 New bridge notes

In April 2025, the subsidiary Azul Secured 2 obtained additional financing of R$610,208 (equivalent to US$107,656) from its existing debt holders, with costs of R$74,976, interest at 13.5% per annum, monthly interest amortization, and maturity in October 2025.

Additionally, interest in the amount of R$20,082 was incorporated into the principal. In July 2025, the balance was settled.

19.5.3 Debtor in possession – DIP

In May 2025, the subsidiary Azul Secured the right to a DIP financing facility of approximately US$1.6 billion, made available in accordance with court authorization. The Company obtained access to R$9,080,656, net of funding costs of R$412,881, resulting in R$8,667,775 (equivalent to US$1.6 billion), bearing interest at 15.0% per annum and maturing in February 2026.

Additionally, interest in the amount of R$722,849 was capitalized into the principal.

In July 2025, using the funds from the DIP facility, the Company made payments on the Superpriority Notes and New Bridge Notes transactions, mentioned above.

19.5.4 Letters of Credit

During 2025, the subsidiary ALAB recognized the amount of R$1,995,890 related to the execution of letters of credit that were used for security deposits, maintenance reserves and other.

19.6 Covenants

The Company continues to measure the restrictive covenants of some of its loan and financing contracts according to the original conditions, while awaiting future agreements that may be reached with its creditors under the scope of Chapter 11, as shown below.

Although the Chapter 11 process may have triggered the non-fulfillment of certain obligations, counterparties are prevented from taking any action as a result of alleged defaults. Therefore, the related debt remains classified in these financial statements according to the originally established contractual schedule.

20.10 Covenants

During the restructuring process under Chapter 11, certain lease agreements that contained restrictive clauses (“covenants”) were rejected and therefore no longer give rise to any future obligations, including compliance with those covenants. Other agreements had remaining amounts classified as GUC, a classification that does not imply the continuation of the covenants.

21. CONVERTIBLE DEBT INSTRUMENTS

21.1 Accounting policies

In accordance with CPC 48 – Financial Instruments, equivalent to IFRS 9, the right to convert debentures into shares was measured at fair value through profit or loss as it is an embedded derivative.

22.3.2 Judicial

The Company renegotiated several lease and supplier contracts directly with counterparties as part of the Chapter 11 process. As a result of the formal approval of the Plan, and based on the best expectations and information available, the amounts were reduced by R$193,435 and R$181,893, respectively.

As of December 31, 2025, based on the best expectations and information available, the net balance of "Lessors – GUC – Chapter 11" and "Breakage – GUC – Chapter 11" reflects the obligations assumed under the agreement with the UCC (Unsecured Creditors' Committee), totaling US$23 million. This amount provides for payments either in cash or through participation in the GUC Trust, in addition to the other benefits established in the Plan.

23 DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

23.1 Accounting policies

Variations in interest rates, exchange rates and aviation fuel prices expose the Company and its subsidiaries to risks that may affect their financial performance. In order to mitigate such risks, the Company contracts derivative financial instruments. Changes in the fair value of derivative instruments are recognized directly in the financial result (income/expense).

25 AIR TRAFFIC LIABILITY, SERVICES AND LOYALTY PROGRAM

25.1 Accounting policies

It comprises the Company's obligations arising from advance receipts for the provision of air transportation services and other services. Such obligations are settled upon the performance of the services.

The Company recognized breakage revenue based on the historical issuance of tickets that will expire due to non-use, that is, passengers who purchased tickets and are highly likely not to use them. For the purpose of recognizing this revenue, the average periods for providing air transport services are also considered, and these assumptions are included in a statistical model that determines the forecast breakage rate to be adopted. At least annually, the calculations are reviewed to reflect and capture changes in customer behavior regarding ticket expiration.

28 PROVISIONS

28.1 Accounting policies

28.1.1 Provision for return of aircraft and engines

Aircraft and engines negotiated under lease without purchase options regularly provide for contractual obligations establishing conditions for the return of these assets.

In this way, the Company provides for return costs, since these are present obligations arising from past events and which will generate future disbursements, which are measured based on Management's best estimate.

These expenses basically refer to aircraft reconfiguration (interior and exterior), obtaining licenses and technical certifications, verifications of returns, maintenance, painting etc., as established in the contract. The cost of return is initially recognized at present value as part of the cost of right-of-use assets, and the provision for aircraft return costs is classified within "Provisions" in the financial statement position. After initial recognition, the liability is accreted using the Company's estimated discount rate (cost of capital). Any changes in the estimate of expenses to be incurred are recognized prospectively against the right of use asset or in the Statements of Operations for the year if the right-of-use balance is insufficient.

28.1.2 Tax, civil and labor risks

The Company is a party to several legal and administrative proceedings, mainly in Brazil. Assessments of the likelihood of loss in these cases include an analysis of the available evidence, the hierarchy of laws, the available case laws, the most recent court decisions and their significance in the legal system, as well as the assessment of lawyers.

Provisions are revised and adjusted to reflect changes in circumstances, such as the applicable statute of limitations, conclusions of tax inspections or additional exposures identified based on new matters or court decisions.

The Company's Management believes that the provision for tax, civil and labor risks is sufficient to cover any losses arising from legal and administrative proceedings.

28.1.3 Post-employment benefits

The Company recognizes actuarial liabilities related to health insurance benefits offered to its employees in accordance with CPC 33 (R1) – Employee Benefits equivalent to IAS 19. Actuarial gains and losses are recognized in "Other comprehensive income" based on the actuarial report prepared by independent experts, while the current service cost and interest cost are recognized in the statements of operations for the year.

28.2.1.1 Taxes

The Company is involved in tax-related matters, mainly associated with judicial and administrative proceedings concerning federal, state, and municipal taxes.

During the third quarter of 2025, the Company became aware of proceedings with a possible loss estimate, concerning the tax bases of Corporate Income Tax (IRPJ), Social Contribution on Net Income (CSLL), and Value-Added Tax on Sales and Services (ICMS), in the amount of R$161,147.

28.2.1.2 Civil

The Company has civil lawsuits, mainly related to compensation actions in general, such as flight delays and cancellations, lost and damaged luggage.

The increase in cases assessed as having a probable loss is due to the significant rise in the number of claims received. The amounts are dispersed, and no specific case warrants individual mention.

The increase in cases assessed as having a possible loss results from the Company's change in policy regarding the granting of settlements through compensation vouchers.

28.2.1.3 Labor

The Company has labor claims, mainly related to overtime, hazard pay, unhealthy working conditions and equal pay. The values are scattered, and no specific case warrants individual disclosure.

29.2.2 Compensation of key management personnel

The Company's employees are entitled to profit sharing based on certain goals agreed annually. In turn, executives are entitled to bonus based on statutory provisions proposed by the Board of Directors and approved by the shareholders. The amount of profit sharing is recognized in profit or loss for the year in which the goals are achieved.

Key management personnel comprise the executive directors, board members and members of the Executive Committee. Expenses incurred with remuneration and the respective charges, paid or payable, are shown below:

Description	Consolidated
	Years ended
	December 31, 2025	December 31, 2024

Stock-based compensation plan, considers the Stock Options, RSU and Phantom shares. Such plans are expected to be settled in up to eight years and, therefore, do not represent a cash outflow. The increase in 2025 relates to the cancellation of stock option and RSU awards that had not yet vested, accelerating the recognition of the expense (note 33).

29.2.3 Guarantees and pledges granted

The Company has granted guarantees on rental properties for some of its executives and the total amount involved is not significant.

29.2.4 Corporate contract

In August 2024, the Company entered into a corporate agreement with Águia Branca Participações S.A., one of its shareholders, for the purchase of airline tickets.

29.2.5 Breeze

The Company signed sublease agreements for three aircraft with Breeze Aviation Group ("Breeze"), an airline founded by the controlling shareholder of Azul, headquartered in the United States. The transaction was voted on and approved by 97% of the Azul's shareholders at the Extraordinary General Meeting held on March 2020. Following good corporate practices, the controlling shareholder did not participate in the voting.

During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company finalized the sublease contracts.

32 EARNINGS (LOSS) PER SHARE

32.1 Accounting policies

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net income attributable to the Company's equity holders by the weighted average number of shares outstanding, except treasury shares, during the year.

Diluted earnings per share are calculated by adjusting the weighted average number of shares outstanding, excluding treasury shares, for the effects of potentially convertible instruments. For the year ended December 31, 2025, although the Company reported net income, and December 31, 2024, net loss, potentially convertible instruments were not included in the calculation of diluted earnings per share because the conversion price exceeded the market price of the Company's shares during the period, rendering such instruments antidilutive.

According to CPC 41 – Earnings (loss) per share, equivalent to IAS 33, the Company has retrospectively presented earnings (loss) per share due to the conversion of preferred shares and the reverse stock split that occurred in 2026. As these events only changed the number of shares, the weighted average number of shares was adjusted for all periods presented, with no impact on net income, affecting only the denominator of the earnings (loss) per share calculation.

33 SHARE-BASED PAYMENT

33.1 Accounting policies

The Company offers executives share-based compensation plans to be settled with Company shares or cash, according to which the Company receives services as consideration.

The cost of instruments is measured based on fair value on the date they were granted or on the date of these financial statements for phantom shares. To determine the fair value of purchase options, the Company uses the Black-Scholes model.

The cost of transactions settled with equity securities is recognized in profit or loss under “Salaries and Benefits”, together with corresponding increase in the “Capital reserve” or “Salaries and social charges” liability for phantom shares, over the period in which performance service condition are met.

33.2 Compensation plans

The Company has three share-based compensation plans: the Stock Option Plan (“Option Plan”), the Restricted Stock Plan (“RSU”) and the Stock Purchase Plan (“phantom shares”). All of them aim to stimulate and promote the alignment of the objectives of the Company, shareholders, management and employees, and mitigate the risks in the generation of value of the Company by the loss of its executives, strengthening their commitment and productivity in the long-term results.

AZUL S.A.*Notes

December 31, 2025

(In thousands of Brazilian reais – R$, unless otherwise indicated)

During the first quarter of 2025, the Company approved the creation of the first program under its stock option plan, providing for the grant of up to 250,000,000 shares with a vesting period of up to three years.

During the second quarter of 2025, the Company partially canceled stock options and RSU that had not yet vested.

In accordance with CPC 10 – Share-based Payment, equivalent to IFRS 2, the Company concluded that, as a result of the cancellation, it was required to accelerate the recognition of the related compensation expense. Accordingly, the remaining amount of previously unrecognized expenses was fully recognized in profit or loss, reflecting the settlement of the Company's future obligations related to these programs.

The movement of the plans is shown below:

34 SALES REVENUE

34.1 Accounting policies

34.1.1 Revenue from passenger transport and loyalty program

Passenger transportation revenue is recognized when the service is effectively rendered. Tickets sold but not yet used are recorded under “Air traffic liability, services and loyalty program”, net of the estimated breakage revenue (Note 25).

Other revenues, including charter flights, rebooking fees, baggage handling fees and other ancillary services, are recognized together with the primary passenger transportation performance obligation.

In the loyalty program, customers accumulate points based on the amount spent on air transportation and in accordance with the partners' rules. The number of points depends on the customer's category in the loyalty program, market, fare class and other factors including promotional campaigns.

After the sale of a ticket, the Company recognizes a portion of the amount received as revenue when the transportation service is provided and defers the portion corresponding to loyalty program points in accordance with CPC 47 – Revenue from Contracts with Customers, equivalent to IFRS 15.

The Company determines the estimated selling price of the air transportation and points as if each element had been sold on a separate basis and was therefore stand-alone selling price.

The Company also sells loyalty program points to customers and partners, including credit card companies, financial institutions and retail companies. The related revenue is deferred and recognized when points are redeemed, based on the weighted average price of points sold.

Unused points are recorded and maintained under “Air traffic liability, services and loyalty program” until their effective use or expiration.

34.1.2 Other revenues

Other revenues mainly include the transportation of cargo and travel packages and are recognized when performance obligations are met.

37. RISK MANAGEMENT

37.1 Accounting policies

Operating activities expose the Company and its subsidiaries to the following financial risks: (i) market risk, related to interest rate, fuel price and exchange rate, (ii) credit risk and (iii) liquidity risk.

The risks are monitored by the Company's management and can be mitigated through the use of swaps, forward contracts and options.

All activities with derivative financial instruments for risk management are carried out by specialists with experience and adequate supervision. It is the Company's policy not to operate transactions for speculative purposes.

37.2 Fair value hierarchy of financial instruments

The following hierarchy is used to determine the fair value of financial instruments:

Level 1: quoted prices, without adjustment, in active markets for identical assets and liabilities;

Level 2: other techniques for which all inputs that have a significant effect on the fair value recorded are directly or indirectly observable; and

Level 3: techniques that use data that have a significant effect on the fair value recorded that are not based on observable market data.

The fair value hierarchy of the Company's consolidated financial instruments, as well as the comparison between book value and fair value, are identified below:

			Consolidated
			Book value		Fair value

37.4 Credit risk

Credit risk is inherent to the Company's operating and financial activities, mainly disclosed in cash and cash equivalents, long-term investments, accounts receivable, security deposits and maintenance reserves.

Credit limits are established for all customers based on internal classification criteria and the carrying amounts represent the maximum credit risk exposure. Outstanding receivables from customers are frequently monitored by the Company and, when necessary, provision for expected credit losses are recognized.

Derivative financial instruments are contracted on the over the counter (OTC) market with counterparties that have a business relationship with the Company and can be contracted on commodity and futures exchanges (B3 and NYMEX), which mitigate and contribute to credit risk.

40. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

After December 31, 2025, the Company advanced in the implementation of the Restructuring Plan conducted under Chapter 11 proceedings. The following significant events occurred:

On January 6, 2026, the public offering aimed at the mandatory capitalization of the Senior Notes 1L and 2L was approved, representing a central stage of the Plan. This transaction involved the conversion of credits held by investors into the Company's equity, resulting in a capital increase of R$7.4 billion.

On January 12, 2026, The entire class of preferred shares was converted into common shares at a ratio of 75 common shares for each preferred share, resulting in the share capital being represented exclusively by common shares.

On January 14, 2026, a capital increase of R$1.2 billion was approved following the exercise of warrants distributed free of charge as part of the offering described above. The exercise increased the Company's capital base and adjusted its shareholding structure in accordance with the terms agreed with creditors under the Plan.

On January 19, 2026, the mandatory conversion of the convertible debentures was completed, as resolved by the debenture holders. This conversion resulted in a capital increase of R$1.0 billion.

From January 23 to February 6, 2026, the Company launched, priced, and completed a private offering of senior debt securities ("Exit Financing"), raising US$1.4 billion. The proceeds were fully used to repay the DIP financing and to provide liquidity for the final execution of the Plan.

On February 11, 2026, the Administrative Council for Economic Defense (CADE) approved the investment by United Airlines in the amount of US$100 million, enabling the investor to participate in the public offering of new capital (Equity Rights Offering – "ERO").

On February 18, 2026, the allocation process for the ERO was completed, resulting in a capital increase of R$5.0 billion, consisting of both new capital contributions and the optional capitalization of the DIP Financing. The Company approved and completed the reverse stock split at a ratio of 75 shares to 1, with no change to the share capital, and all share quantities reported after that date already reflect the effects of the reverse split.

The Company also entered into amendments to investment agreements with American Airlines and United Airlines providing for additional capital contributions of up to US$200 million, in addition to US$100 million from certain existing creditors. Additional warrants were also issued which, if exercised, may result in additional capital contributions of up to US$25 million.

On February 19, 2026, the Board of Directors approved the issuance of three series of warrants contemplated in the Plan, directed to American Airlines, unsecured creditors, and to United Airlines and certain creditors. If fully exercised, these warrants may result in potential dilution of up to 12.5% for shareholders who do not exercise their preemptive rights. On the same date, the members of the Strategic Committee provided for in the Plan were elected, subject to certain conditions precedent. The committee will be responsible for overseeing the Company's strategy and post-reorganization implementation.

On February 20, 2026, the Company completed its formal exit from the Chapter 11 process, following the verification of the conditions set forth in the Plan. Azul emerged with reduced financial debt and lease obligations, a substantial improvement in liquidity and leverage, and a reorganized capital structure. On the same date, consolidated share capital increased to R$21.8 billion.

Notes

December 31, 2025

(In thousands of Brazilian reais – R$, unless otherwise indicated)

On March 25, 2026, the Company held a shareholders' meeting to approve a reverse stock split at a ratio of 150,000 to 1, as requested by B3. The effectiveness and implementation of the reverse stock split will occur as of April 20, 2026, when the Company's shares will begin trading under the ticker symbol AZUL3. As disclosed in the materials made available in connection with the EGM meeting call notice, shareholders holding common shares issued by the Company in a amount that is not a multiple of 150,000 may, until April 17, 2026, at their sole and exclusive discretion, adjust their respective positions through market transactions, by aggregating their holdings into lots comprising multiples of 150,000 shares, through trading on B3. Additionally, in compliance with the Chapter 11 reorganization plan, the Company has requested that B3 delist the April 2025 Notes, which were cancelled upon consummation of the plan.
